Mallucks Indicted By Jury

Alfred F. Malluck and his son, Alfred L. Malluck, operators of Lennard Coins, Charlotte, N. C., and Lazenby Coins, Statesville, N.C., are free after they furnished $10,000 bond following their arrest in Charlotte, September 22 on a federal warrant.

The warrant resulted from an indictment September 19, returned at Statesville, charging the pair with use of U.S. mails in furtherance of a scheme to defraud.

J. W. Davis, of Atlanta, Ga., postal inspector, said the Mallucks were remanded to jail; later they posted bail. He also said the Malluck dealership under the name of Piedmont Coin and Supply, Statesville, was not involved in the charge.

A federal grand jury indicted the father and son after a steady stream of complaints against them from all over the United States motivated an investigation by postal authorities.

Inspector Davis said the amount involved in collector-losses was "in excess" of $10,000. He also said that the number of complaints investigated exceeded 100. The arrest climaxed a long investigation of the Mallucks, the inspector said.

The Mallucks will probably be scheduled for trial in a federal court in the spring, Inspector Davis said.

Collectors will recall that Inspector Davis of the Atlanta division is also in charge of the (Continued on Page 20)

Proof Set Deadline Nears As '62 Order Date Approaches

Mint Head Says 1961 Orders Filled Through October 31

The United States Mint in Philadelphia will continue to fill orders for 1961 proof sets through October 31—with the same limitations that have been in effect since March 15, said Mrs. Rae V. Biester, superintendent of the Mint, on October 2.

Orders for 1962 proof coins will be accepted at the Mint beginning November 1, 1961, said Mrs. Biester in the same clarifying statement.

She branded as absolutely untrue published reports that 1961 proof set orders would not be filled after September 1.

"We imposed a 25 per cent reduction on 100-set orders March 15 of this year, you will recall," said Mrs. Biester.

"We will continue on this same basis. We are sending 75 sets instead of the requested 100 to these applicants. They are receiving refunds of $52.50 for the unfilled quantity."

She also made it clear the Philadelphia Mint would continue to accept orders for one and two proof sets only until the October 31 expiration date.

Expanded facilities, coupled with a series of efficiency innovations directed by Mrs. Biester, have kept proof set customers happier this year.

Evidence of these stepped-up operations can be seen in proof set figures for this year and last:

In 1960, 171,420 proof sets were manufactured during the month of August.

In 1961, a total of 294,580 sets were recorded on the domestic coinage report for August.

To date a total of 1,972,348 proof sets have been reported for the first eight months of 1961.

Last year, the first eight months saw 1,006,686 sets struck representing an increase of 965,662 for the current year over 1960.

Formosa Using New $1 Coinage

By Dwight L. Musser
Indian Rocks Beach, Fla.

On Friday, September 15, a new New Taiwan $1 coin was released by the Central Bank of China through the branch offices of the Bank of Taiwan, Formosa.

Previous to this date the only coins circulating on the island were aluminum NT (New Taiwan) 10 cents and NT 20 cents and brass NT 50 cents.

This past summer the Bank of Taiwan released a new NT $100 (100 New Taiwan Dollars) note. Since Formosan paper money is issued in graduated sizes, the new note is slightly larger than the next highest denomination—the NT $10.

It is similar in appearance to previous issues of the other major denominations in that it bears the familiar portrait of Sun Yat Sen on the "Chinese side" and the Bank of Taiwan building on the "English side."

This brought the number of denominations of circulating paper money to six. The other denominations in circulation are NT one cent, NT five cents (the fractionals are actually very seldom used), NT $1, NT $5 and NT $10. For the last 12 years the highest denomination of paper money circulating in Formosa has been the NT $10 note. According to an article in the China Post, a num-

FBI Joins In National Search For Camden Coin Dealer Fred Johnson

The FBI has joined postal authorities in the search for Fred Johnson, 45, former Philadelphia and Camden, N. J., coin dealer, following his indictment September 27 in Camden by a federal grand jury on charges of defrauding coin collectors of $16,000.

Johnson disappeared from his residence at the Walt Whitman Hotel in Camden, on June 4.

Seventeen counts were included in the indictment handed U.S. District Judge Thomas M. Madden.

Assistant U. S. Attorney Frank Ferry of Camden said Johnson accepted checks and money orders totaling some $16,000 for coins which he never delivered.

Postal inspectors said they had processed 42 complaints against Johnson.

Ferry said the checks and money orders sent Johnson through the mails ranged from a few dollars to $4,750.

A San Bernardino, Calif., dealer identified as S. H. Feinberg sent Johnson a check for $4,750 along with an order for 500 proof sets, Attorney Ferry said, and a $4,445 check for 70 bags of 1961 cents was received from the Maricopa Coin Syndicate, Inc., of Phoenix, Arizona.

Fred Johnson

Ferry said Johnson rented a post office box at the Fourth and Market streets station in Camden, and advertised himself as a wholesale coin dealer in numismatic publications. He formerly operated the A.N.Y. Sales Co., which used a Philadelphia post office box.

Last May Johnson lost a New Jersey Superior Court suit in which he sought to force two Camden banks to supply him with

"new, unissued and uncirculated coins."

In the suit, Johnson said the banks were obligated to supply him with such coins "on demand."

Judge John B. Wick, in dismissing the suit, termed Johnson's request, "the most unreasonable demand I've ever seen in court."

F. J. Brill, postal inspector in Philadelphia, who has been in charge of the Johnson investigation, gives the following description of the fugitive, and asks that anyone who has a lead as to his whereabouts call him or wire him at the Post Office Department in Philadelphia.

The description of Johnson: He is 45 years of age, five feet, eight inches to five feet, 10 inches, approximately 250 pounds; grey-flecked, medium brown hair—receding; many little tumors on face; cysts on neck; large tumor sac on left elbow; horn-rimmed glasses, excellent conversationalist; avid reader.

Iowa Club Presents Flag

The Port City Coin Club of Muscatine, Iowa, voted at a recent meeting to present three new flags to the city of Muscatine, to be used for special occasions, according to a report from club officials.

At the same session, the members heard a report from Charles Lindburg on the recent Peoria Coin Show, and appointed him to represent the group at a state meeting in Marshalltown, Iowa. Three new members were accepted, and the session closed with an auction conducted by Norval Garrison.

Next meeting of the Port City club is slated for Tuesday, October 24, to be held in the auditorium of the Municipal Light and Power Company of Muscatine, starting at 8 p.m.

Canada Guild Releases Book

The Numismatic Guild of Canada recently released the fourth edition of its illustrated book, Cash for your Canada, Newfoundland, Great Britain and United States Coins.

Containing 250 illustrations and enlarged coin photographs, the new edition lists average prices currently being paid by Canadian and United States dealers, and explains to readers the many factors that determine the price of a good coin.

The Numismatic Guild of Canada is a publishing company only, and does not deal in coins. All inquiries about coins are directed to a local reliable dealer.

Starting with the Canadian large cent of 1858, the book covers Canadian coins and currency up to and including the notes of chartered Canadian banks. This also includes a listing of Canada's broken bank notes.

Other listings include Newfoundland, New Brunswick, Nova Scotia, Prince Edward Island, and Great Britain coinage.

Coin World Staffer Reports For Active Duty With Air Force

Classified Man Goes To Baer Field

Coin World felt the full, chill blast of the cold war this week when Tom Ehler, of the Classified Advertising Department, reported to Baer Field, Fort Wayne, Ind., and active duty with the United States Air Force.

The 22-year-old Ehler is a member of the 122nd Air Police Squadron, attached to the crack, top-rated 122nd Tactical Fighter Wing. His activation is for a year or more.

Ehler has been a member of the Indiana Air National Guard since November, 1956; he re-enlisted for a new three-year tour of duty in November, 1959.

His wife, Gretchen, and their seven-month-old son, Tim, will join Airman Ehler for the immediate present. His mother, Mrs. J. L. Ehler, is a Decatur, Ind., resident.

Ehler was born in Decatur, and lived there until he became a member of the Coin World staff in April of this year. At that time he was serving as charter president of the coin club he helped organize in the Decatur area, the Adams County, Ind., Coin Club. He is a member of the American Numismatic Association, and an avid student of numismatics.

He began to collect coins in November, 1958. His primary interest is in all forms of copper, large cents, half cents, two-cent pieces, Lincolns and Indians.

He graduated from the Decatur Catholic High School, and attended Indiana University extension classes for a year. He was a member of the staff of the Lincoln National Bank, Fort Wayne, Ind., before he came to Coin World.

Ehler jokingly masked his disappointment at leaving Coin World with such comments as,

"Oh, well, there'll just be lazy days on the Riviera," and "... Wonder how far Brigitte Barbot lives from Berlin?"

Then he turned serious. "First thing I do," he vowed, "is to start a coin club in my outfit!"

When Wayne Lawrence of the Coin World staff told Ehler goodbye, the two recalled their special numismatic kinship—both joined the Coin World staff at the same time. And they own American Numismatic Association numbers in sequence—Lawrence's is 41730 and Ehler's, 41731.

Lawrence is an assistant in the display advertising department to J. Oliver Amos, business manager, and has developed many of the outstanding advertisements which have drawn praise from the Coin World clients.

Lawrence had been a member of the advertising department of The Sidney Daily News for four years prior to joining the staff of Coin World. He came to Sidney with his father, a Methodist minister who was located at Port Jefferson, a nearby community.

His sense of design and striking layout work quickly gained for him a large number of clients in the Sidney area and it was this outstanding work plus his interest in numismatics which promoted him to haunt the offices of Coin World.

Many of the more outstanding and attention compelling layouts in the weekly numismatic newspaper have been the result of his work. Because of this daily newspaper background, Coin World has been able to present more and better styled advertisements than were available to the trade in previous years.

Young Lawrence, in addition to his numismatic interest, has recently become the father of a fine son and he has already started a coin collection in his son's name.

Russians Find Buried Coins Near Lelev

Russian scientific workers at U.S.S.R.'s State Historical Museum have identified a hoard of 300-year-old coins found recently in the village of Lelev, in the Chernobyl'sky district of Kiev Province.

Their report says that the coins consist of "Polish solidi" minted in the 17th century during the reign of King John Casimir (1648-1668) and shillings minted about the same time in Riga in the name of Swedish Queen Christina, who reigned from 1632 to 1654.

The "solidi" carried the profile of John Casimir on one side and the Polish coat-of-arms, in the form of a single-headed eagle, on the other.

The Christina coins had a large letter "C"—the queen's initial—on the obverse. At the top was a crown. The coat-of-arms of the royal house of Vasa was inside a sheaf. On the reverse was the Riga city coat-of-arms: crossed keys with a crosslet above them.

According to the Russian report, the small-denomination coins were made of poor-quality silver. However, the hoard, buried during the second half of the 17th century, was considered valuable because of the new information it provided on the history of Ukrainian money exchange.

The coins were found by V. I. Skorokhod, a Ukrainian collective farmer, who was digging a pit in his personal garden plot to store potatoes. The money was in a small earthenware pot buried about three feet deep.

After the coins were dug up, Skorokhod's neighbors took several coins each "as souvenirs," and some "were lost." Skorokhod said that "at the time we didn't know that discovered treasure belongs to the state and not to individuals."

Missouri Club Starts

Coin collectors in the Chillicothe, Mo., area held a meeting recently at the Chamber of Commerce office for the purpose of organizing a coin club. Persons interested in the club should contact the Chamber of Commerce for information regarding future meetings.

Utah Society Joins In Battle To Suppress Misleading Catalogs

The Utah Numismatic Society has taken a leading role in a fight that deserves the participation of all serious numismatists, a fight against the persons responsible for numerous misleading so-called coin catalogs which are currently circulating throughout the country.

One such catalog on the market lists the price of a 1955-D cent at $100 but does not say that the 1955-D cent must be double-struck to realize this high price.

Dealers in the Salt Lake area are reported to be spending a great deal of valuable time explaining to persons who come in with a common 1955-D that they "have been rooked."

Joe Plant, president of the Utah Numismatic Society, quickly responded with warnings to the public over Radio KWHO. He advised listeners to attend meetings of the Society where frank opinions of the catalogs would be delivered.

"This sort of thing is poor public relations for dealers and collectors alike," Plant said, "and it's going to cost money to combat the practice. Our Society can not do it alone. We can only hope that the American Numismatic Association and national papers such as Coin World will discourage this practice."

The National Better Business Bureau has taken up the fight against the fraudulent promoter with a scheme designed and intended to procure remittances through the mails under the guise of dealing in coins.

According to a release by the Community Protection Service of the Chamber of Commerce, which is affiliated through membership with the N.B.B.B., numerous promoters are advertising that they will pay large sums for rare coins, so as to imply that they are coin dealers, when their primary purpose is to lure the uninformed into buying a catalog.

The N.B.B.B. has charged in a report just released that this advertising creates the impression that these catalog listings of rare coins, worth fabulous amounts, are in general circulation and are being used in making change only because the public doesn't know their numismatic value.

"The facts are," the report states, "the rare coins cited are in the hands of collectors, and the possibility of finding any of them in circulation is non-existent."

On the other hand, the report notes, some of these catalog promoters quote prices for coins which are available through legitimate dealers, and which may be in limited circulation at prices substantially less than the market price.

The Bureau advised that the Post Office Department has had occasion to examine into some of this promotional advertising, and the following finding of fact in one case in which a fraud order was issued, aptly summarizes the scheme:

"The evidence shows the pretenses, representations and promises of this promoter to the effect that his concern is a bona fide dealer in coins, that certain coins are wanted by it, and that its 'listings' will enable purchasers to procure the sale of various coins to it at substantial premiums." The Post Office Department went on to say that the above claims were false and fraudulent. This promoter, who was not identified by the P.O.D., was interested only in procuring remittances through the mails for the so-called 'listings' under the guise of claiming to be a coin dealer, the Department said.

The Chamber Community Protection Services recommends to those interested in coin collecting as a hobby that they read some of the many books available on the subject, and that they deal with established coin dealers.

A copy of the National Better Business Bureau's booklet on the Coin Catalog Scheme is available upon direct request to the Bureau at 75 East 45th Street, New York 17, N. Y. A stamped return envelope should be enclosed.

Secret Service Picks Up San Francisco Silver Cent

San Francisco coin dealer Edward Baker has been relieved of his 1946-D one-cent piece which he claims is made of silver and values at $25,000. The cent was confiscated by Secret Service chief Tom Hanson of the San Francisco office.

Hanson gave Baker a receipt which said: "if examination establishes that the coin was genuinely struck on a 10-cent planchet, it will be returned."

Baker claims to have purchased the silver coin from Robert McMullen, owner of a small antique shop in San Francisco, who told Baker he had received the cent in change. Baker said that he paid McMullen more than $500.00 for the silver coin.

The coin will be sent to Washington for analysis and tests, but Baker said, "I have tested it myself, and I know that it is genuine. There were 1,500,000,000 1946-D pennies struck, and this is the only one struck is silver."

Hanson took the "cent" from Baker at Baker's offices and left in its stead, the receipt.

The Secret Service will test to see if the coin is counterfeit. If it is, the Government will keep it. If genuine, it will be returned to Baker and then the Government will seek a court order to confiscate it, according to Baker.

Baker last January claimed he had a 1943-copper cent which he valued at $10,000. The U. S. Mint said at the time no such coin existed.

In a letter to Coin World, Baker advised that he would like to hear from readers as to their opinion of this coin and the action being taken to relieve him of it.

Baker's address is 830 Market Street, San Francisco.

New York Club Sponsors Show

The Narrowsburg, N. Y., Coin Club has scheduled its first annual Coin Exhibition and Bourse for Sunday, October 15, from 1 p.m. to 6 p.m., in the Game Room of the Hillside Inn, Narrowsburg, reports John A. Zurine, general chairman.

Mrs. Marie Feagles is assisting Zurine with the arrangements. A bourse, and auction will highlight the show, in addition to the exhibits.

All collectors in the area are invited to attend. One of the purposes of the show is to interest non-collectors in numismatics, Zurine said.

Ex-Publisher Opens Second Coin Center

Frank G. Spadone today announced the opening of his second Ampere Coin Shop—this one in Bloomfield, N. J.—as he turned his full attention to the operation of the two firms.

The new shop, to be known as the Ampere Coin-Stamp Shop, is located at 547 Bloomfield Avenue, Bloomfield, N. J. It will be managed by Robert McAusland.

The first shop is the Ampere Coin Shop, 231 North 18th Street, East Orange, N. Y.

Spadone's talents as a numismatist were divided between operation of his first shop in East Orange, and publication of the Coin Press magazine.

He sold the magazine September 12 to Chester L. Krause, Iola, Wis., Numismatic News publisher, and started the second store.

Robert McAusland, who is managing the new shop in the Bloomfield business-shopping center, is a 47-year-old numismatist-dealer held in high respect by the "old-timers" in the hobby.

McAusland, in spite of his age, holds American Numismatic Association No. 4698. He is also a member of the Professional Numismatists' Guild.

McAusland operated his own business for several years, including both shop and mail order contacts.

He brings to the Bloomfield operation his experiences as a long-time dealer from the days when a 1931-S Lincoln cent sold for $1, Stellas brought $450, Hawaiian commemorative dollars were available by the roll and an 1856 Eagle proof cent sold for $110.

Spadone and McAusland are welcoming collectors to stop and visit the new shop—it is strategically located in a metropolitan area.

The Bloomfield store, which was redecorated and air-conditioned for customer convenience, will offer coins, supplies and stamps, plus the service of bank and estate appraisals.

The East Orange shop will deal exclusively in coins and supplies, and Owner Spadone will operate this store. He resides in East Orange with his wife, Olympia, and their two sons and two daughters. The Ampere residential area where the shop is located gave the two Spadone firms their names.

The 38-year-old Spadone has collected since 1943; he is a World War II veteran, and served in the European theater of operations with a field artillery unit. He saw duty in seven countries.

"I did very little coin collecting, however," smiled Spadone as he recalled his European "tour." "I was too busy doing other things..."

He began his publishing career in May, 1955, with a magazine which appeared under several names, finally to be sold to Krause last month after it had gone to a semi-monthly.

"I am happy to be able to turn my full attention to the operation of the two stores, said Spadone. "I was spending time on technicalities of publishing, and now I can concentrate on the two shops."

Spadone's future plans—if business warrants—include price lists and other specialized material, and perhaps some day a chain of Ampere shops throughout the east.

Medicine Hat Club Issues New Nickel

Among the recent additions to Canada's wooden money is a wooden nickel issued by the Medicine Hat Coin Club.

The obverse depicts and Indian and reads "Wooden Nickel—Beware of Imitations." The reverse reads "Medicine Hat-First Annual Coinerama, Sept. 3, 1961."

Canadian Currency Must For Purchases

Remittances for coin orders from outside Canada must be accompanied by a money order, certified check or bank draft payable in CANADIAN currency," N. A. Parker, master of the Royal Canadian Mint in Ottawa, reminded United States collectors today.

"If collectors adhere to these instructions it will alleviate the necessity of returning these remittances which are made payable in American dollars and which do not allow for the difference in the current rate of exchange between U.S. and Canadian dollars, the master pointed out.

He also added that remittances which are properly made out expedite delivery of coin orders.

Many interested American buyers of Canadian coins are unaware that the rate of exchange between U.S. and Canadian currency fluctuates daily. The differences between the two moneys can be ascertained at any local bank, rather than by writing to the Mint, Master Parker said.

Ferguson Gets Lost Material

A highly pleased J. Douglas Ferguson, honorary president, Canadian Numismatic Association, reports from his Rock Island, Quebec, home that the lost has been found!

Ed Schroeder of Oakville, Ontario, notified Ferguson that his numismatic material of the French regime which was missing from the Hamilton Canadian Numismatic Association convention, was being returned to him at once.

Schroeder said he must have picked up the Ferguson material in the security room while he was assembling some of his own.

Rock Hill, S.C. Scene Of Show

The Tri-County Coin Club of South Carolina, in conjunction with the Blue Ridge Numismatic Association, is holding its third Annual Celebration on October 28, from 10 a.m. to 10 p.m., at the Stadium Hut, York avenue, Rock Hill, S. C.

Auctions, exhibits and a dealers' bourse will highlight the show. Frank Hull, the show's secretary-treasurer, said that bourse tables are still available at $3 each. Reservations may be secured by writing to Hull at P.O. Box 33, Fort Mill, S. C.

Hull said there will be a number of special prizes awarded, free parking and police protection for the entire day.

Curators Hiding Coins

A Canadian reader of Hans Schulman's column takes him to task for writing about the Knox collection of coins in the Museum of Science in Buffalo, New York.

Our Canadian friend drove 230 miles round trip to visit Buffalo and see the famed Knox collection. But when he reached his destination he found no collection on display. An inquiry brought out the fact, it had been placed in storage some nine months before.

Dick Johnson

As he returned home—his disappointment must have been great—he drafted the letter he wrote to Hans. Unfortunately it was not our columnist's fault. Museum curators are quite noisy when they place a new collection on public view, but are quiet when they remove one.

Another very famous collection has been stored, this one from Congress Hall in Philadelphia. In 1914 Frank H. Stewart, an electric company executive, donated a collection of coins to the city of Philadelphia.

Several seasoned numismatists remember seeing this collection and were astounded at the rarities it contains. Pieces like a 1796 half cent on a large cent planchet, a copper half disme, and many others.

Stewart owned a building that was once the first Mint building. When he tore it down, he saved all the mementos possible—iron crucibles, and small fragments of scrap copper from the annealing room, etc. These are in the collection also.

But the collection has been taken from public viewing and stored. It has not been seen by collectors or the public in three years!

One more instance: the Byron Reed collection is one of the most outstanding coin collections to be held by a public institution. Reed, a wealthy real estate operator in Omaha in the late nineteenth century, donated his collection to the Omaha Public Library, along with the ground the library stands on.

In preparation for an upcoming Omaha convention, several Omaha Coin Club members persuaded the library to make a special coin exhibit. They did! With coins that had been stored away since 1895!

It is understandable that museum curators cannot display their entire collections at one time. But it is certainly a crime for these collections to lay entombed in their cabinets where no public eye can appreciate them.

An Invitation To I.A.P.N.

The executive committee of the International Association of Professional Numismatists have not made the decision to join with the A.N.A. and C.N.A. in making next August's convention truly international. The door is still open, however.

The American dealer delegation—composed of some of the top dealers in this country—presented the formal invitation to the international group in Rome recently.

I'm certain every American collector joins with me in expressing our wish to have this esteemed group of dealers come visit us and to bring a sampling of their wares. To every member of I.A.P.N. we join with our American dealers in saying: "Come to Detroit next year!"

Letters To The Editor

After looking through your September 29 issue I strongly suggest you rename your paper The Medal World.

Bob Foyd
Mattoon, Ill.

Message for Florence:

1. Turn blue!!
2. Medals are here to stay!!!
3. You can't win, so why not join us?

Numis-medallic-ally yours,
H. C. Platt
Manchester, Iowa

Originally I subscribed to Coin World, but I find it now has been changed to Medal World. If medals are so popular, why not start a paper for medal collectors and leave us numismatists alone.

Dr. Maurice M. Mosier
Des Moines, Iowa

All my professional life has been devoted to proper usage of the English language, but for one of the few times in my life I am completely at loss to find proper words to describe your first Medals/Medallion issue of September 23. I stayed up to 2:30 a.m. just to read it.

John D. Stanard
Chattanooga, Tenn.

In checking my medal collection I find the private award by Saint Gaudens with a reverse by C. Barber commemorating Christopher Columbus at the 1892 World's Fair, Chicago.

An Italian medal, 60 mm., bronze, depicting Cristoforo Colombo in magnificent high relief with a stunning reverse is also included in my collection. This medal was made by L. Pogliani and came out of Milano, Italy.

I have no doubt that medal collecting including French and English will soon sweep America as a change in diet which most collectors will welcome.

A. R. Martino
Waterbury, Conn.

Congratulations on the Gargantuan—"Herculean" is too tame a term—special edition of Coin World. As an old special edition man myself for various suburban newspapers in Westchester County, N. Y., I take my hat off in the presence of a terrific job. Boy, but your advertising lineage is fine!

Dr. Walter Rumsey Marvin
Executive Director
Ohioana Library Association
Columbus, Ohio

Enclosed is my check for another year's subscription to your very fine paper.

Mr. Johnson, I am not the type of person who is always griping, but really saw red after reading William G. Florence's letter to the editor. Why should he condemn Roy Small and all medal collectors? I think this shows some sort of weakness. I collect coins and medals and enjoy them equally.

If he does not like medals, let him stick to his coins. And as to his proposed medal, I think you wasted good space by publishing it. I wonder who his model was? Looks like a confused coin collector.

Keep up the good work. You have a very fine paper and I look forward to every issue.

Why can't the U.S. Mint make commemorative coins? I would think it a very profitable business. It surely doesn't cost any more to strike a commemorative half dollar than an ordinary half dollar. And when they can sell them for double face and even more, it looks like a money making deal for the U.S. Government. I would like to see some commemorative quarters or dollars struck. Is there anything that we collectors can do about this situation?

G. T. Morgan
Parsons, Kansas

Enclosed find check to cover mail bid ad we placed in the August 18 edition of your paper. Right now we are sitting back and the checks are coming in. The reception to our ad in your paper was more than we had expected. Offers as a whole were very good, came from all parts of the United States and even Alaska. This proves you have a tremendous coverage with your paper and that any ad placed in your paper is assured of getting to all collectors.

Art Fuller
Manitowoc, Wis.

I certainly enjoy your weekly newspaper. It is a most interesting and informative one indeed, and covers just what I enjoy most, a little selling, a little buying and good reading. Keep them coming.

Ed Arledge
Hattiesburg, Miss.

The medal issue of Coin World was a beautiful job. Have already been told by customers it is the best issue Coin World has put out to date.

Toivo Johnson
Brewer, Maine.

Yesterday I received Coin World and was very disappointed to find the huge two-section edition was devoted to medals. Medals! I couldn't care less about medals.

But I started to pick at the stories and became interested and read everything with delight and interest. I learned a lot. Thanks for the easy education on medals. I could take more.

Herbert L. Brown
Joshua Tree, Calif.

There are certain occasions when our vocabulary is entirely inadequate to express our real feelings, and this is one of those occasions!

Your very generous handling and placing of the article on our Fellowship Award Medal in the Medal Issue of Coin World is one of the nicest things to happen to us since our inception in 1959. We would like to express our gratitude for your kindness.

Certainly its appearance in your fine publication will familiarize the medal to many whom we might never otherwise reach, and it is that we wish to thank you.

Gettysburg Battlefield
Preservation Association
Gettysburg, Pa.

...It seems that the almighty dollar means more to your publication than publishing fair trades. What's a fair trade? Man, let's get realistic. At the present time this isn't a hobby, it's a rat race.

Ted Pietrykowski
Detroit, Mich.

Many thanks to Frank Knight of Kermit, Texas, for remembering that the official World's Fair for this decade is not in New York, but in the Pacific Northwest, specifically Seattle, Wash., (not Portland as mentioned in Mr. Knight's letter). By decision of the International Bureau of Expositions, the Seattle World's Fair is the only Fair in this country for the next 10 years that can have official country representation from the countries that are members of the Bureau.

The Seattle World's Fair will host approximately 10 million people between April 21, 1962, and October 21, 1962, at its 80 million dollar Fair.

Bob Lyte,
Promotion Manager
Seattle World's Fair
Seattle, Wash.

Why wouldn't it be a smart project for all of your readers to urge the Treasury Department of the United States to issue a commemorative half dollar honoring "Century 21", the World's Fair to be held in Seattle in 1962?

Congress has appropriated millions of dollars towards its cost. We will have, along with other countries, a fine exhibit and are vitally interested in its success.

If sold at $1 a piece by the Fair, many thousands of additional funds would be available for use as desired. The profits might even be used to lessen the amount of funds other wise to be given by the government.

With the increased interest in coins now in effect, there is no doubt thousands of collectors would be glad to purchase. They would be timely also, for no new commemoratives have been issued lately.

Dr. A. S. Cory
Chehalis, Wash.

I am hoping something will be done to bring your paper to a reasonable reading level. Being a weekly issue and having growing pains makes it impossible for at least 75 per cent of your subscribers to actually read all the contents.

Elmer A. Panke
Detroit, Mich.

In this one issue I have read about 15 trade offers in which the advertisers were honestly trying to make a fair trade. But the majority are offering junk for good coins. Why don't you rate your trades and allow only those which are reasonable? ... I am afraid your paper will lose status.

Gary Bisaccio
Portland, Oregon

Kennedy and Lincoln Medals Still Available In Bronze

To date, all platinum and silver medals in the Presidential Art Series have been SOLD OUT.

Currently, Kennedy and Lincoln bronze medals are available at a cost of $2.50 each. The Kennedy bronze medal is the medal that President Kennedy purchased to distribute on his mission to Europe last spring.

These medals, like all medals in the series whether platinum, silver or bronze, contain unusually high STANDARDS OF WORKMANSHIP and FINE HIGH RELIEF SCULPTURING. These qualities, plus the fact that the precious medals (platinum and silver) are produced in LIMITED QUANTITIES, contribute to the increasing value of the medals.

Both the Kennedy and Lincoln medals were struck by the MEDALLIC ART COMPANY, the only American company devoted exclusively to sculptured bas-relief. The intricate design and sculpture work was done by MR. RALPH MENCONI, an internationally recognized sculptor in the field of full portrait and high relief work.

The Presidential Art Medal Series is a CONTINUING PROGRAM in which three or four medals will be struck each year until the program is complete. New models will be struck thereafter as Presidents are inaugurated.

This exclusive offering will be a treasured possession whether you desire only one or the entire series. The PRACTICAL SIZE of the medals (slightly larger than a half dollar) makes them particularly well suited to display in an album, which will be offered in early December.

Orders are filled as received. We suggest that you select and order your Presidential Medals today. Ohio residents add 3% sales tax. DEALER INQUIRIES ARE INVITED.

Washington Medal Scheduled For December

In early December, Presidential Art Medals, Inc., will introduce the George Washington medal . . . third of the series. This medal will contain the same high standards of workmanship and fine high relief sculpturing as its predecessors in the series . . . the Kennedy and Lincoln medals.

Coin Auctions To Be Held On Two Sundays In October

Two coin auctions—Sunday, October 15, and Sunday, October 29, to be held in the Los Angeles area—are announced by George Bennett, Los Angeles coin and stamp auctioneer.

The first on October 15, will be held at Larchmont Hall, 118 North Larchmont Blvd., Los Angeles.

The October 28 auction will be held at Creston Hall, 10519 Victory Boulevard, North Hollywood.

Both auctions will start at 12:30 p.m., according to Bennett. Both are to be floor and mail bid sales, and will No. 9 and No. 10 conducted under his own banner since the first of the year. He has conducted seven coin and three stamp auctions during the past 10 months.

Bennett and his associate, Murray Singer, both well known figures in Los Angeles numismatic circles, attribute the success of their auctions to their employment of a new concept in commercial coin and stamp auctioneering—frequent one-session sales of moderate volume with emphasis on attendance (average attendance is about 150).

This results in floor rather than mail bidding accounting for the greater percentage of lots sold. This new approach and the informal manner in which the auction is presented is patterned after the usual club type auction (the modus operandi of which was perfected originally by Bennett and Singer at the Los Angeles Coin Club and has since become a model used by many other clubs throughout the United States).

"Aren't you at all interested in seeing my coins, Miss Windemere?"

The hardworking Bennett presides at four coin club auctions each month, Los Angeles, San Fernando Valley, Glendale and West Valley Coin Clubs. Since a good portion of his audience at his professional events is composed of club members, much of the material offered is generally geared to the needs and pocketbooks of the average collector.

Bennett is president-elect and Singer a member of the board of governors of the Numismatic Association of Southern California. Both are past presidents of the Los Angeles Coin Club and have held various and sundry offices in several numismatic organizations in southern California.

Empire Offers You:

- EXPERIENCE — Our staff members have intimate knowledge of all United States series . . . not only the standard copper, silver and gold coins, but the more diverse series such as colonials, patterns, territorial gold, etc. As one of the largest rare coin dealers we have an up-to-the-minute knowledge of the coin market.
- FAIRNESS — Empire will make a FAIR AND HONEST offer for your coins. We invite you to compare our offer with as many other dealers as you wish. We can stand the test. There must be a reason . . . and the reason is our willingness to make a fair and high offer based on our examination of the collection.
- PROMPT PAYMENT — We will make a definite, firm offer for your collection. If our offer is accepted you will be paid immediately . . . whether your collection is worth $2,500.00 or $250,000.00. If you are interested in selling by auction we offer that service also . . . but if you want a definite price for your coins without waiting and returned coins we suggest the direct purchase method.

Trends Of Today's U.S. Coin Values

'Trends' Is Composite Of Market

By Jim Kelly

333 W. First St., Dayton 2, Ohio

Due to a number of recent inquiries, there is still apparently some question as to the values set forth in Coin Trends, as well as the method used in arriving at these figures. There is one point we wish to clear up in answer to the many letters questioning where they can buy the coins at these prices, or those sending us orders, believing it is our personal advertisement.

Jim Kelly

Many dealers and collectors use the values set forth in Coin Trends as a basis for their price when buying and selling, but Coin Trends is a composite of prices listed in a number of publications, as well as auction results and private sales. They are not necessarily the prices that any certain dealer is charging.

Another question frequently asked is this: "We note that in nearly every publication including Coin World, some of the coins listed in Trends can be purchased for considerably less than the price you list."

This no doubt is true as in compiling Trends, we have used prices of established dealers who consistently stock these various items in sufficient quantity that they are available most of the time.

Quite often when you see coins listed for considerably less, the advertiser may only have one or two of these and it is our opinion that this price should not be used in establishing a standard market value.

In other words, prices listed in Trends are the prices at which you can be reasonably sure of obtaining this material if and when desired.

It is only natural that collectors, as well as part-time dealers who have little or no overhead, can sell for less than Trend's prices.

Loud New Illinois Leader

Walter Loud of Springfield, Ill., was elected president of the Illinois Numismatic Association recently during the annual convention of that group in Peoria, Ill., according to a report from the new secretary, Dick Hoffarth.

Other officers elected include Richard Fry of Rock Island, Ill., vice president; Bob Okell, Bloomington, Ill., treasurer; William Ashworth, Matton, Ill., Joseph Mileham, Springfield, Ill., and Carl Yost, Mendota, Ill., board of directors.

The convention featured auction sessions totaling more than 500 choice lots, including an uncirculated 1796 quarter and several 1909-S VDB Lincoln cents in fine to uncirculated condition.

One of the highlights of the entire show was the showing of the Irving Moskovitz gold and platinum collection valued at more than $500,000.

The meeting opened on Saturday, September 23, with a banquet. Total attendance at the show exceeded 1500 despite rainy weather, it was reported.

Green Safety Device

United States prints currency with green ink because green cannot be easily photographed, thus combatting counterfeiting.

Fullerton Man Speaks In Pasadena

Ralph A. Mitchell of Fullerton, Calif., known far and wide in the field of numismatics for his large and varied collections, as well as for his extensive knowledge and his generous sharing of this knowledge, was guest speaker recently at the 125th meeting of the San Gabriel Valley Coin Club at the Huntington-Sheraton Hotel in Pasadena.

His subject for the evening was "Today's Junk and Tomorrow's Rarities." He spoke of collecting clam shells on Pismo Beach, and gave an account of his rolled cent collection which now consists of about 150 different types.

In all, Mitchell mentioned at least 30 types of relatively inexpensive items which are both interesting and instructive as well as amusing to collect.

Alva Christensen, president of the club, had as her display for the meeting, a Babylonian clay tablet, dated about 1850 B.C. Houston Barry showed some ancient coins, and Ethel Stone displayed her collection of eastern wampum from New Jersey and Pennsylvania.

M. H. Bolender conducted the auction and displayed a catalogue of the 128th sale in 1941.

Others displays were presented by Jim Suppa, Durrell Smith, Bob Northwood, Frank Smith, Elmer Johnson, Pat Kelly and Jim Farrell.

Morgantown Gold Sells Low

An uncirculated 1904 five-dollar gold piece, valued at $28 in that condition, sold at an auction of the Mountaineer Coin Club, Morgantown, W. Va., recently for $18.50, it was reported by Virginia Defabio, publicity chairman.

Mrs. Defabio said that this would be recorded as one of "the best buys" in local numismatic circles during recent months, and certainly points out the advantage of having such an organization in Morgantown to assist collectors.

Elwood (Whitey) Mansberger, vice president of the Mountaineer group, handled the auction sale and expressed amazement when the gold piece went "under the hammer" for $18.50, saying, "It will be a long time before this club, or anyone in Morgantown, for that matter, has another chance to buy such a scarce coin at such a low price."

Realizing the need for an increased educational program, Mansberger appointed several members to serve on a program committee. Future meetings will be highlighted with films on various items of numismatic interest. Films of this type are available to the coin club free of charge from the library at West Virginia University.

The Mountaineer club meetings are held the third Sunday of each month in the Morgantown Community Building.

Due to the annual election scheduled for the November meeting, the president appointed a nominating committee to present a slate of officers to the membership at that time.

The club is one of Greeneville's newest and most interesting hobby endeavors, Phillips advises, and held its charter meeting in June of this year.

REGENCY COIN & ST

Triple Cities Auction Big

Triple Cities Coin Club's auction held recently at Binghamton, N. Y., attracted over 200 potential buyers for the 500-lot sale, according to Fred Hunter, club president.

The sale included 8,600 common Indian cents, and some lots brought as high as 24 cents apiece for the coins.

Other prices realized were: 1900 Lafayette dollar, $47.50; 1877 Indian cent in fine, $110; 1867/7 Indian cent, AU, $120; 1955 double strike Lincoln, $118.

Liberty head quarter eagles brought $32 to $35; 1878 proof shield nickel, $95; 1931-S Buffalo nickel, unc., $17.

David Nethaway of the Empire Coin Co. in Binghamton conducted the auction.

"As a result of the great success of the sale," commented Hunter, "additional club auctions with printed catalogs will be taken under advisement by the executive committee to hold such sales again in the near future."

Triple Cities Coin Club meets on the first and third Tuesdays of every month at 8 p.m. at the Johnson City, N. Y., Moose Club.

Report From Berlin

Friedberg Consultant Working On Revision Of Gold Coins Book

By Robert Obojski

When I arrived in West Berlin by air from Zurich late this summer, I found the Berlin Hilton Hotel nearly empty.

Since the recent crisis over Berlin developed, the flow of tourists had dropped to a trickle.

As my first order of business, I stopped in to see Karl Ludwig Grabow, one of Germany's best known numismatists who operates his coin firm at Lietzenburgerstrasse 3a in the heart of downtown West Berlin.

Grabow is also well known to American collectors for he prepared most of the material on German gold coins for Robert Friedberg's comprehensive work, Gold Coins of the World.

"I am currently working on the revised edition of this volume which is due to come out in the next year or so," said Grabow.

"My major task is to correct errors which crept into the first edition, and to list those gold coins which did not originally appear, particularly rare pieces," added the German numismatist.

The German section in Gold Coins of the World occupies no less than 91 pages.

Before the federation of Germany was achieved in 1870, virtually every German principality and large city struck its own coins—hence, the enormous number of varieties that were issued over the years.

"The new volume of Friedberg will catalog about 20,000 German gold coins," concluded Grabow, "including all the different dates, mint marks, etc."

Grabow has operated his firm in West Berlin since 1953, while his father was for many years a dealer in Rostock. He is a member of long standing in the International Association of Professional Numismatists.

Grabow keeps a separate card in his filing cabinets for each German gold coin variety. On these cards he notes the mintage history, latest auction selling prices, and all other pertinent facts regarding the coin. From an analysis of this information, he bases current prices. Nothing is left to chance.

Two Clubs In West Berlin

There are two major coin organizations in West Berlin, the Berlin Numismatic Society, founded in 1843, and the Munzen Freunde, the latter translated, "friends of coins."

The tourist does not have to look hard for a place to purchase coins when he arrives in the city, for there is a stock of coins of the world maintained in an antique shop located at the colonnade of the Berlin Hilton Hotel.

Major dealers include Karl Ludwig Grabow at Lietzenburgerstrasse 3a and P. Habelt, Westendallee 89, Berlin-Charlottenburg 9. Both are members of the International Association of Professional Numismatists.

A good many of the jewelry shops in the downtown area carry stocks of contemporary gold coins, and coin jewelry, from gold coin cuff links to gold coin bracelets. The coins used in most cases are not replicas, but are the authentic pieces.

All coins for East Germany are struck at the huge mint in East Berlin.

Coins for West Germany are struck in four different mints, at: Munich, Stuttgart, Karlsruhe, and Hamburg.

The Berlin Museum in East Berlin houses the German national numismatic collection. An exhibit of over 5,000 coins is open to the public, while the research collection totals over 100,000 items.

Under ordinary circumstances, tourists can cross over from West to East Berlin in order to view the coins. (See Coin World story, August 4, 1961, page 28.)

Shreveport To See ANA Slides

West Berlin Banks Buy, Sell Old, Contemporary Gold Coins

Banks in West Berlin buy and sell gold coins of the world to collectors.

Collectors can deal in both older gold coins of the 19th century as well as in contemporary pieces.

Gold bullion is also bought and sold at many West Berlin banks. Small gold ingots, clearly marked with their weight and the name of the issuing bank, are often purchased by collectors as prize numismatic items.

A large office of the Berliner Commerzbank on the Kurfurstendamm, in the heart of the downtown section, maintains a unique display of gold coins in order to attract business.

About 20 coins, representing as many countries, are mounted on a revolving wheel, and when the coin reaches the 3 o'clock position, it is specially illuminated and identified as to country and denomination.

The U. S. is represented in this exhibit by a 19th century double eagle.

Banks in various other large cities of West Germany also handle gold coins for collectors.

Since West Germany's economy has recovered so remarkably after the devastation of World War II, collectors, are, in general, more prosperous than ever before. As a result there has been a great demand in the past several years for gold coins as well as for gold commemorative medals.

Patina Adds Value

The rich green patina on Roman coins should not be removed; this is a natural sign of antiquity, and adds to artistic value of the coins.

1955-S LINCOLNS

I purchased 5 rolls of 1955-S Mint Lincolns from a dealer in the East and they were about half die errors. I think what happened was a part of a die wiping cloth had lodged in the die causing, across the reverse, the O and N in ONE and the E and N in CENT are blurred and on some, obscured. In the rolls were pieces of wool yarn such as would be used in a wiping cloth with numerous flakes of copper imbedded.

I spoke to this dealer at the Penn-Ohio convention about them and he offered to buy one roll at the price I had paid for the 5 rolls. I refused and am now offering one of them free with the purchase of the 15th Edition of "The Red Book" at $1.75 plus your dime for postage. Ohioans, 3% tax.

Trends Of Today's Canadian Coin Values

Coin Show Attendance Is Important

By J. E. Charlton
80 Richmond St., East
Toronto 1, Ont., Canada

J. E. Charlton

This is an excellent time for coin collectors to take stock and prepare for the many fall and winter conventions and coin shows. With interest in the hobby at an all time high, this should be the best season yet! Make it a point to attend one or more of these events. You will benefit in more ways than one.

It will provide an opportunity for meeting new and old friends, viewing many outstanding displays and collections, learning more about numismatics, obtaining needed coins for your collection and disposing of surplus material.

This month I will be attending the London Numismatic Society's Annual Coin Show in London, Ontario, and the Penn-Ohio Coin Club's Fall Convention in Cleveland, and next month the Michigan State Numismatic Fall Convention in Detroit.

A first hand report will be given readers of this column on developments at these gatherings.

It is not unusual for uncirculated Canadian coins of the current year to become scarce near the end of a year due to increased demands by merchants and storekeepers for the Christmas trade, so collectors should obtain their requirements while such coins are readily obtainable.

LARGE CENTS

investigation involving Daniel J. McBride, one-time Atlanta, Ga., coin dealer wanted on at least 30 mail fraud complaints—the man who first disappeared in Washington, D. C., with $15,000, and who eluded capture in Reading, Pa., last winter.

"We have received several leads from different parts of the country," said Inspector Davis, "but they have turned out to be people who look like McBride. (His photograph and a complete description appears in the August 4, 1961, edition of Coin World. They are also on posters in post offices from coast to coast.)

The inspector said McBride, who has adopted a series of aliases during his crime career, is actually named Dale Allen Travis.

Novelties At Show Held At Brunswick

A three-legged Buffalo nickel, a $60 bill, and an evening gown made of stamps were feature highlights at the fall meeting last month of the Maine State Numismatic Association.

The all-day session was held at Pilgrim House, First Parish Church, Brunswick, with William Elms, president of the Brunswick Area Coin and Stamp Club, serving as general chairman.

Coin Displays At Convention

More than 600 persons saw numismatic material at the recent convention of the Southern Illinois Amateur Archaeological Society at Riverside Park in Murphysboro, Ill., according to a report from Philip Florio, chairman.

This marked the first time displays of different hobbies were ever exhibited in the Murphysboro area, Florio said, and they included, in addition to the numismatic display, various displays of Indian relics, guns, gem stones and antique glass.

Convention officials included Willie Smith, president; Philip Florio, chairman, and Henry Porter, secretary-treasurer.

Plans are already being made for next year's convention, which Florio promises will be even bigger and better than this year's.

BEST NEWS IN YEARS FOR COIN COLLECTORS

Toivo Johnson takes a great deal of pleasure in bringing to his coin friends, the first beautiful medal in the COIN MEDALS series,

The Official AUGUSTUS SAINT-GAUDENS COMMEMORATIVE MEDAL

We are now sending out the St. Gaudens silver and bronze medals and expect to have all accumulated orders cleaned up within a few days.

The idea or theme of COIN MEDALS, is to commemorate great coin designers, the men who made the coins we collect. Other medals to follow, equally as beautiful as the Saint-Gaudens now offered, will commemorate Barber, Morgan, Brenner, and other names familiar to all collectors.

Each medal will depict on the obverse, the finest work of the coin designer. The reverse will have data pertinent to his life and work. Of course, these famous designers did nice work in coins, but in medallics they could really give free rein to their imagination and ability. In a coin, the sculptor or designer is hampered by the small area of the coin, by the lettering and mottoes he is required to fit into the small area, and by the low relief, as the coins have to stack.

The Official Augustus Saint-Gaudens Medal is issued with the approval of the Trustees of The Saint-Gaudens Memorial in Cornish, New Hampshire. Two of the bronze medals, and the Number 1 and Number 2 of the serially numbered silver medals, will be put on permanent display in the Memorial Museum. These will be seen by thousands of visitors each year.

Now, to describe the Augustus Saint-Gaudens Medal,

OBVERSE: One of the finest medallic works of Saint-Gaudens, done by him in 1892, perhaps at the height of his career, for the Worlds Columbian Exposition. This medal is a private award medal, and as such, is very rare. It is Saint-Gaudens magnificent interpretation of the Discovery of America, showing Columbus stepping on the soil of the New World. Columbus' arms are outstretched, in humble gratitude to the Creator, for making his long voyage successful. A plaster cast of this Columbus is on display in the Memorial.

REVERSE: A depiction of Saint-Gaudens beautiful home and studio "Aspet", in Cornish, New Hampshire, where he lived, worked, and died in 1907. In the sky over the house, like a setting sun, is shown his famous Roman date Double Eagle, acknowledged the most beautiful American coin. This is truly an artistic presentation, as the sun did set on the famous sculptor's career the same year he designed the coin.

The Saint-Gaudens medal is being struck by The Metal Arts Company of Rochester, New York, master craftsmen in bronze and other metals. Any town, city, coin club, etc. desiring to commemorate some event with anything from a token to the finest medal, will do well to contact this company.

The Saint-Gaudens medal will be of 3 inch diameter, as all COIN MEDALS to follow. It weighs about 7½ ounces in bronze, and the .999 pure silver medal, being of the same thickness, weighs over 8 ounces. The silver medals will be serially numbered on the edge, and the issue will be limited to not over 5000. This is only one-half the number of Hawaii Half Dollars minted, and with the wide-spread interest COIN MEDALS will have, I can sincerely predict the Saint-Gaudens silver medal will be more difficult to obtain in a few years than the coin mentioned.

You can order now, for delivery in a few days.

The bronze medal is $5.50, or two for $10.00.

With appropriate holders and stands to be available later, two medals will afford a simultaneous view of the obverse and reverse.

Introductory Price on the silver medal is a comparative low $27.50 until Oct. 15th

The serially numbered silver Saint-Gaudens is still only $27.50 but will be $30.00 after October 15th. We suggest that you order now. All silver medal orders will receive acknowledgment of the order with indication of the serial number of the medal.

Reverse of St. Gaudens Medal

SCULPTOR'S MODEL OF SAINT-GAUDENS MEDAL

Before pictures of the Augustus Saint-Gaudens medal are published, it might be of interest to many Coin World readers to see a medal in the making.

Illustrated above is the reverse model of the Saint-Gaudens medal, greatly reduced in size, as the actual model is larger than this page of Coin World! This model, as well as the die work, was done by Mr. Robert Schabel, recently arrived from Germany, with an extensive background of medallic work there. Saint-Gaudens, Victor Brenner, and countless other gifted people, have come from Europe to achieve fame in their chosen work in America.

The lettering, stars, and other fine detail, which this model does not show, are engraved into the die. In the model, you see a really rare Double Eagle, with no date or stars!

Other medals in the COIN MEDALS series, will all depict in the center of the reverse, the design for which the coinmaker is best known to coin collectors. Thus, the Brenner medal will have Lincoln's bust, as originally designed in 1909.

Orders for the Saint-Gaudens medal are filled in strict sequence, there may be a few days delay while prior orders are being shipped.

In Portrayal Of Portraits

Portraits of Roman emperors on Roman coins often are as good as clear photographs, emphasized Dr. Charles Schwarzenburg in an article "The Evolution of Coinage Portraiture" written for the fall edition of the Coin Galleries Numismatic Review.

"There is no doubt about the realism in the portraits of the successors of Augustus," wrote Dr.

Schwarzenburg. "Look at them! The fleshy face of the over-fed, over-indulged playboy Nero is in accord with the verdict of history.

"The weatherbeaten, leather-neck face of the old general Vespasian," continued the scholar, "the indefatigable administrator Trajan with his energetic expression, and low forehead and the delicate wide-eyed countenance of the scrupulous philanthropic Marcus Aurelius...."

Dr. Schwarzenburg added this note, "Maximinus Thrax, the barbarian winner of a military intrigue, scowls suspiciously from his coins at the well-mannered senators who he cannot help feeling, all think of murdering him."

Atlanta Has New Shop

A new coin shop, Harkness and Sons Coin Company, opened for business recently in Suite 103, 291 Peachtree Street, N.E., Atlanta 3, Ga.

"The new shop will specialize in Lincoln cents, all dates and grades, singles, rolls and sets, according to Joe Harkness, manager.

Harkness said that even though the new firm will feature Lincoln cents, it has a large collection of other coins as well as the other necessary material needed for coin collecting.

"We pledge to grade our coins accurately, to sell reasonably and to promote the hobby with all the zeal at our command," Harkness advised, "and we believe a satisfied customer will be a permanent customer."

For Program

The Northern New York Coin Club, Watertown, N. Y., will view a film "Let's Take A Trip" which was produced by the Medallion Art Company of New York, at the November meeting to be held at the Italian-American Club on Bellevue Avenue.

Plans have also been completed for the first showing of color slides on coin study at this meeting. The Medallion Art film describes the making of medals from the raw material.

All interested persons are invited to attend meetings of this club.

Novel Pieces Available At Show

A feature of the Penn-Ohio Fall Regional Convention, set for October 13, 14 and 15, will be the offering for sale of three wooden duplicates of the three-cent Trime, the one-half Disme, and the Disme, according to a recent report from convention officials.

One of the first strike duplicates will be given to every registrant at the convention. The other two may be purchased at a price not yet announced.

These three wooden pieces are unusual and will not be available in rolls or bags and they are not numbered. They will be available only during the convention, it was reported.

Another feature will be the offering for sale of the rare 1793

Liberty Cap large cent. This item will be offered during the regular auction.

A total of 2,480 lots make up the sale, including 260 lots of gold coins.

Gold coins will be offered from all periods and areas of the world—ancient, medieval and modern European, Oriental, South American and U.S.

Top item here is the 1855 round $50 "slug" of Wass, Molitor & Co. of San Francisco. Redbook value is $7,500.

Other featured gold pieces are a Pre-Columbian Inca coin larger in size than the American double eagle, and an 1873 gold pound of Australia.

Michael Kolman Jr. of Federal Coin Exchange in Cleveland is the auctioneer.

Odd, Curious On Program For Coast Club

Dr. Elizabeth L. Rees and her souvenir spoons were featured at the September 27 session of the Pacific Coast Numismatic Society of San Francisco.

Odd and curious items and antiques were featured at the meeting.

Recent activities of the P.C.N.S., headed by Milton C. Strauch, included representation at the Atlanta convention of the American Numismatic Association.

Members attending were Earl Parker, Leo Young, A. Kosoff, Ernest Meyer and Denzil Goble.

The Society reports it will have the opportunity of hosting a convention for the new Northern California Numismatic Association at least once a year.

P.C.N.S. is the oldest organization of its kind west of the Mississippi river, and one of the oldest in the country.

Tri-County Meet Rescheduled

Forced to change its meeting date this month because of a conflict in use of the hall, the Tri-County Coin Club of St. Marys, Ohio, is slated to hold its next session on Sunday, October 15, instead of October 8, at the Eagle's Lodge, starting at 2 p.m.

Main item of business is expected to be the announcement of committees for the club's second Coin Show, set for Sunday, November 19, at the National Guard Armory in St. Marys. At the last meeting, the following show chairmen were named:

General co-chairmen, Ray Eblen and Mike Marker; bourse chairmen, Emil Zit and Ray Biliter; security, Walter Menges, Don Kuhn and Clarence Briggs; awards and display, Floyd H. Clark, and registration, Steve Buchanan.

Main speaker at the last session was Mike Marker of Wapakoneta, who talked on "Grading of Lincoln Cents". He discussed Brown and Dunn's standards, and summed up by saying that "No two people seem to grade coins the same way".

Hopewell Collectors Start Club Library

Membership is still open for adults and juniors in the Hopewell, Va., Coin Club, organized last spring. Any interested collectors are invited to attend the next meeting, set for Tuesday, October 17, in the Hopewell Community building, starting at 7:30 p.m.

The club, formed with the cooperation of Raymond L. Mathis, director of the Hopewell Recreation Department, has joined the American Numismatic Association and started a club library.

Marker, Clarence Briggs and John Van Voorhees were appointed to the nominating committee to prepare a slate of officers for the annual election scheduled for the December meeting. In attendance were some 40 visitors as well as the same number of members.

At the auction which followed, most items realized less than estimated values. An 1874 nickel in AVG went for $4.60; 14 V-Nickels from 1900, G-F, brought $1.80; 1932-D quarter, AF, $9.60; set of Flying Eagle cents, $6.00; Canada cents, 1915-1920 inclusive, F-VF, $1.30, and an 1843 silver dollar filer, with good date, $2.00.

Keep Alert, Look Around Advice To Young Collector

Rod Culkin of East Keansburg, N.J., says he found a 1954-S cent with the "B" and "E" linked together as a "Lib-i-erty" cent, and wants to know if it is common for this date. He has not noticed any reports in Coin World.

ANSWER: We have not watched particularly which dates were reported with that defect, but Jewett's "Mis-strikes and Oddities in the Lincoln Cent" lists it, so evidently others have spotted it.

Mike Robinson of Oklahoma City writes as follows:

"I received a 1943 nickel with a backward '3' in change at my school lunchroom. I would like to know what it is worth. I am 10 years old and in the 5th grade."

ANSWER: Mike, your coin collecting has made you observing. Keep it up, and notice everything that goes on around you as well as coins. You will learn a lot more than the school will teach you.

As for the nickel, we suggest you take it to Martin Brown's Coin Shop and ask him to check it to see if it is a genuine Mint defect or if it has been tampered with. Its value would depend on that. You will like him. If we remember correctly, his store is listed in the classified section of the Oklahoma City telephone book.

Irving Harris of Chicago, Ill., reports an oddity of a different sort, an 1860 Copper Nickel Indian cent with a definite dot between the "8" and the neck, large enough to be plain in a picture.

He says he has seen thousands of Copper Nickel cents but this is the first he has found with a dot. He would like to know if it has been reported by others.

ANSWER To the best of our knowledge, this is the first. It would probably wear fairly easily so that a coin would have to be fine for it to be obvious, or close to it. We assume the cause to be a hole in the die, as if somebody had hit it with an ice pick or whatever similar tool is used in the Mint.

That being the case, there should be more of them, as it is unlikely that inspectors would spot the first one out, or worry about it even if they did see it. Ask your fellow members of the Oak Park Coin Club to check their 1860's for any signs of it, and let us know if more are located. We have the picture, and will print it if any appreciable number of readers request it.

John K. Fols of Arlington, Va., sends in some "slides" of what he thinks looks like a 1947 over 6 Jefferson nickel, and wants to know if it is a true overdate or an extremely "accurate" error that makes it appear to be an overdate.

ANSWER Close examination with a microscope shows a horizontal bar extending left from the top of the "6", but no other signs of anything out of the way. If it were a '47 over '46, more of the "7" would show since it presumably would have been cut later than the "6".

One slim possibility would be that a 1947 working die was made late in 1946 for use in 1947, then at the last minute more 1946 nickels were needed and no 1946 working dies available, so the 1947 die was recut. That is not likely, because the bar of the "7" would hardly have been overlooked.

We consider it most likely that this is a variety of the 1960 "bar" or "morse code" nickels that nobody ever noticed.

Roger Dold, Grand Island, Nebr., says he has read ads to sell 1941 slanting "1" cents, and wants to report that he has slanting "1" in both 1941 and 1941-S. He also reports having a 1941 slant "1" over a normal "1", and a similar coin dated 1951. The 1941 digit slants to the right, and the 1951 digit slants to the left. He wants to know if other reports have been made on these, what they are worth, and what caused them.

ANSWER: These last are new to us. There are two causes known to us of slanting digits: tampering, and "die suction" which slides the metal away from where it ought to be. There may be other causes but we don't recall that anybody has told us what they are.

The first step in identification is to get expert advice as to authenticity. Try Elmer G. Nelson of the Grand Island Coin Club. He would know who are the experts in your neighborhood.

John Gollehon, Huntington Ind., has a different kind of problem. He recently purchased a presumed Mint-sealed 1955 proof set from a dealer. Opening it, he found no seal, with the quarter where the seal usually is, and the quarter pocket empty. He wants to know if he should keep it or buy another set, and if such a set has any added value.

ANSWER: We suggest you take the set to Fort Wayne and have an expert dealer or collector check it for genuineness. We have heard of faked proof sets, and mentioned them in Coin World just recently. We assume the dealer you bought the set from is reputable, but he could have bought it from somebody else.

It would be better to get several opinions. Try the Old Fort Coin Club at Fort Wayne. There should be some pretty good people there, but don't take the word of any collector or dealer who has not had at least 10 years' experience.

Once satisfied of the set's genuineness, what you do would be determined by why you want the set. If it is for display with other annual proof sets, it would not be satisfactory. Other than that, proof coins are proof coins and look good in a plastic holder. (Get a "safe" one, made of absolutely inert material, not one made of acetate).

The Mint could have sent it out that way. Sets with two dimes and no nickel, etc., have turned up. We would not pay extra for such a set, but would not be disturbed by it, once it was established as genuine.

Michigan Dates Named

The Lincoln Coin Club of Taylor, Mich., has formulated its final plans for the upcoming October 21 and 22 Coin Convention to be held in the Steelworkers Union Hall at 14024 Fort Street, Southgate, Mich., according to a report from Winifred Jewell, secretary.

The show will feature 8,600 square feet of coin activity featuring bourse tables, coin displays, and auctions. The auction consists of 200 lots.

To date, the club has mailed approximately 1,800 brochures and has placed placards in many different business establishments throughout the Southgate area.

"Our only regret," Mrs. Jewell advised, "is that we are unable to fill the many requests for tables. They are all sold."

Dealer displays and other exhibits will be protected by a photoalarm system. Additional informa-

Prospector Club Hears Kasser

A recent meeting of the Desert Coin Prospectors Club, Victorville, Calif., was highlighted by a talk given by James Kasser, member of the club's executive board, who spoke to the group on modern foreign coins.

Kasser discussed two methods of minting coins, press and punch, and named the most common metals used. He emphasized collecting Canadian coins and advised fellow members that Canada will soon eliminate silver from its coinage.

Following the address by Kasser, the members conducted a discussion of plans for participation in the San Bernardino County Fair. Arrangements were made to set up several club exhibits at the Fair Exhibition Hall, with

INVEST IN GOLD COINS OF WORLD

Fifty million frugal Frenchmen bought gold coins to protect their savings from inflation. Now Americans are doing it.

Many Americans believe it is illegal to own gold coins in the U. S. It is legal. Americans are finding out that it is legal, and are buying millions of dollars worth of gold coins, salting it down in safekeeping, or proudly showing it to their friends.

Why are they buying gold coins? Here's why:

- (1) Money invested in gold coin is Safe.
- (2) Gold coins are increasing in value. U. S. gold coins are no longer being minted, haven't been minted for a quarter of a century. Limited supply, increasing demand spells higher prices coming.
- (3) Gold price increase is very likely. Force of economic necessity will bring it about. The political and economic theories that point to a gold price increase are concisely set forth and backed with statistics in The Gold Report. Briefly it is this: Foreigners have claims against the U. S. Gold reserve amounting to more than the gold reserve. Enough of these claims might be exercised at any moment to precipitate a run on the U. S. gold reserve. This run on gold could only be stopped by a gold price increase. (The Gold Report available from Author, price 15c, see letter-head above.)

A Double Eagle costing approximately $46 now might be worth $100 or so in a few short years.

Gold coins also make fine gifts. They are beautiful, imperishable, valuable, easily transported and stored, and quickly turned into legal tender paper money should an emergency arise (Who will buy them? I will, basis Zurich prices.) A gold coin is a conversation piece. Many people have never seen real honest money.

Back in 1932, during the first days of the Roosevelt New Deal, some people "in the know" or those who could "see the writing on the wall," converted their paper money into gold coins. These people made a killing. In 1934 the price of gold was marked up from $20.67 to $35 per ounce—an increase of 70 per cent almost overnight. Evidently a lot of this gold found its way into safekeeping in the Swiss Banks. I do not know and cannot tell you the whole story of how much U. S. gold coin wound up in the banks of Switzerland, but I can assure you that some of it is there. The Swiss are the bankers, the safekeepers, and the gold dealers to the world. For centuries they have made a business of buying and selling gold bullion and coin, and they are still in business. Anyone can buy gold coin from the Swiss Banks. Send them your money, and after your check is cleared they will send you the gold coins.

It is my business to import gold coins from Switzerland for you, at a very small mark-up. You can buy coins through me, usually at less overall costs than you could buy direct from the Swiss Banks, because I buy and transport in larger quantities. I also hurdle the BARRIERS OF IMPORTING with the many uncertainties that are involved.

Some may question why a $20 gold coin is worth more than its face value. When these coins were minted, gold was worth $20.67 per ounce; the price now is $35.00 per ounce, (more in London). At $35 gold, par value of the coin automatically increased to $33.84. They are worth the increased premium (over $33.84) because they are scarce, and because gold is worth more than $35., and because they are collector's items. Gold coins are bargains; their cost is really less in purchasing power today than in 1933.

Consider the Double Eagle: It costs you $46 (of the 1961 variety). But a 1961 dollar is only worth 40c in terms of the 1933 dollar. Therefore a Double Eagle only costs you 46 times 40c which equals $18.40 when converted to the purchasing power of the 1933 dollar. Therefore, a Double Eagle costs you less now than in 1933!!!

Some people have written to know how I can sell gold coins since it is not legal to own gold in the U.S. Well, I do sell and deliver gold coins to you within the U.S., legally, since certain coins come under an exception to the gold prohibition law. Read about it on page 26 of The Gold Report. The Gold Report is available for 15c.

During the 7 months prior to Oct. 20, 1960, I have imported over $200,000 worth of gold coins and have sold them at a predetermined fixed price. Then came October 20, 1960, when gold bullion prices in London shot up to $40 per oz., with corresponding increases in gold coin prices. At that time it became necessary for me to change my mode of operation and pricing. I no longer give a firm fixed price for the coins, because in a volatile market it is too difficult to predict a fair price in the future, even for a week or two. It became necessary to base the selling price of the coins on the cost of the coins in Zurich at the time your order arrives in Zurich.

I no longer buy coins for my own account, and sell to you for a profit, but now, since October 20th, 1960, I buy in Zurich for you, for a fee, and as your agent. I do order coins in advance of sale, and therefore I can often ship your order within one week of receipt; and small orders (up to $300) can often be shipped from stock, but not always.

Here is the way it works: you send me your money and order; I combine your order with a number of others, forward the money to Zurich in one large sum, buy in Zurich for you at a favorable large order price, ship the coins by KLM air cargo in large enough quantities to get favorable rates. And I arrange for Customs entry by my own Customs Broker who now knows how to get the coins cleared expeditiously. Upon arrival here in Houston I distribute the coins to the different buyers and make refunds to you to adjust for the cost against the money received. I submit ThermoFax copies of the invoices from the Zurich bank to verify prices paid.

For this service my fees are:
8% up to $100 order, Minimum fee $1.00.
7% on orders of $100 to $200.
6% on orders of $200 to $1000.
5% on orders of $1000 to $5000.
4% on orders of $5000 or more.

The above fees cover the following expenses (which are all the expenses involved in buying in Switzerland and delivering to you):

My office overhead, my own pay or profit, Air Express charges; Insurance; Cartage, Customs Brokers fees, and Registered surface mail from Houston to any point in the U.S.

What will gold coins cost in Zurich in today's markets? Coin prices are affected by changes in bullion gold prices, but do not follow bullion prices too closely. There is a limited supply of coin, especially of certain coins, and coin prices may be affected more by the depletion of supply than by the changes in gold bullion prices. We should expect coin prices to rise more rapidly than bar gold.

The printed order blank carries a late quotation from Zurich, but not necessarily the latest one, because the printing is done two to six weeks in advance. This office will have a quotation from Zurich usually less than seven days old, and we will be glad to furnish same to you on request.

Orders to Zurich go out from this office once per week, or more often. Delivery time from Zurich is about one week from the day the order is airmailed from Houston—that is from Houston to Zurich and back to Houston in seven days. Customs entry will require from two to four days additional; then it may take me one to three days to ship the orders from this office.

I will keep a stock of coins and some of the smaller orders will be shipped at once from my own stock, with prices based on the current Zurich market.

GUARANTEE: If you don't like the coins delivered to you, or if the price is too high, I promise to repurchase your full order of coins if returned within three days of receipt at 2% less than you paid. But you must return the full order, not just certain coins that you don't like—keeping only the high grade quality coins.

QUALITY OF COINS: I cannot say for sure what grade of coins will be shipped in the future, but it is reasonable to assume they will be equivalent to the coins I have received in the past. These have been of the following grades: $20 St. Gaudens, EF to Unc. (many are Unc.); $20 Liberty Head, F to VF, sometimes EF; $10 Indian head EF; $10 Liberty Head F to VF; $5's F to EF. Numismatic grades of coins are: Uncirculated (Unc), Extremely Fine (EF), Very Fine (VF), Fine (F), Very Good (VG), Good (G), and Fair.

Mint marks and years shall not be mentioned in order. You will get a high percentage of the same years.

ABOUT ME: In this operation I could certainly cheat you if I so felt like it. But I could be put in the Federal Penitentiary for so doing, for this is a mail order operation and I do not intend to commit mail fraud. I am 50 years of age, have a net worth of over $100,000 of which more than half is liquid assets, the other half in real estate and notes. My bank is the Alameda State Bank, Houston 4, Texas, and I'm favorably known by all officers. I have been at this same address for 13 years, formerly engaged in real estate business.

With this method of operation I am able to process your orders at once, without returning your orders for agreement to new prices, et cetera, thus you get quicker coverage. And from now on it would appear that time is in the essence. Further, this method puts you in the position of buying at the Zurich price, at a fair price, at a price you can know is fair; you will be buying in Zurich at the greatest gold coin market in the world, and at the place where gold coin prices are set for the world.

Fill out your order for gold coins today on the order blank below. Your personal check is O. K.

Yours cordially,
LOYD L. PARKER

P.S. Please don't ask me to send you only the very best coins—how could I do this and still be fair to the other buyers? I try to send to each buyer the average grade of the coins received in the Zurich shipment. I do not skim off the cream and send you the culls. I don't have time to do this, nor the inclination. At present time my sales are running at a rate of $1 million per year. I handle all shipments myself, and I do not have time to cull and sort and negotiate. I have never had a returned shipment.

Manila Numismatist Praises Hobby As Invaluable Medium

Friendship, Understanding Strengthened By Collectors

By Dr. P. I. de Jesus
Manila, Philippines

It is encouraging to note the growing interest of American collectors to foreign coins, particularly to those of close neighbors, Canada, Mexico and the Latin American states.

Overseas subscribers of Coin World are pleased to observe that more and more reports on foreign series are being published, and the wonderful accounts of the numismatic wanderings of Hans Schulman, James Johnson and others are a treat to foreign collectors.

We are glad to hear that in the Atlanta convention many Americans showed keen interest in Spanish-American series which seems to prove that Americans are getting more and more detached from the idea of isolationism which trend has manifested after World War II.

I firmly believe that coin collecting more than any other hobby can promote a better world understanding and create warm friendship among different peoples of the world. In recognition of this fact the American Numismatic Association through its past president, Admiral Oscar Dodson has, become an ardent exponent of the People-to-People program. Through this medium more and more Americans will see moneys of other lands whence they will learn the history and culture of other peoples.

In this trend towards cosmopolitan collecting what is more natural that Americans should seek the coins of their neighbors. Fortunately there is not a more prolific field which offers a kaleidoscope of varieties produced by more than 20 mints south of the border. Many of these mints are older than any U.S. mint and have supplied coins to all parts of the world including USA.

Nor can we find more picturesque coins than these issued in the New World, a parade of primitive odd moneys, cobs of different shapes, square cut pieces, countermarked and cut dollars, exotic pillar dollars, crude revolutionary pieces, gold, silver and copper in all kinds of denominations.

American collectors usually start with Mexico where the first mint was established in 1536. Using the Real (equivalent to 12½c) as unit, the mint struck millions of silver coins from half-real to 4 Reales. For a time ¼ real was also struck but was discontinued because they were so tiny and easily lost. Copper coins were also struck but were unpopular and discontinued. Hence, these two coins are very rare.

During the reign of Philip II of Spain, Mexico started to manufacture great quantities of silver dollars called eight reales or "pieces of Eight". The demand for these silver pieces was so great with the succeeding reigns of Philip III, IV, etc., that the mint was forced to issue crude pieces, the so called "cobs" cut from silver bars or planchets and stamped in crude fashion. In a great many of these pieces, therefore, the inscription and designs are incomplete, the shapes irregular and those where the dates appear, are rare indeed.

During the reign of Philip V in 1732-1734, the so called "recortados" or square-cut pieces of the two world's design were struck in Mexico. In Guatemala, cobs of two-world type were also minted. Then came the milled pillar dollars, beautiful round pieces of eight dated 1732-1772 now in great demand. Gold coins were struck beginning 1635 and were produced in great quantities 50 years later.

These gold and silver coins lured the pirates which preyed on the galleons carrying these treasures on their way to Spain across the Atlantic and to Manila across the Pacific.

In the process of circulation, coins undergo interesting transformations brought by necessity. When small change became scarce, the dollars were cut into small bits, hence the origin of the word two-bits for a quarter or two cents. In the West Indies, center portions were cut out of the dollar to give the equivalent value of local currency. In Manila from 1828 to 1837, coins were counter-stamped in order to validate the imported moneys of rebel colonies of America and in order to prevent the coins from leaving the country. To numismatists, these modified moneys are called necessity pieces and are considered rare.

The above discussed coins are getting to be rare and expensive but an ordinary collector can afford to secure types of say a cob of each sovereign, a counter-stamped piece, a cut specimen and a few pillar dollars.

To these may be added the Spanish-American dollars (8 reales) of 1772-1825 (bust type) issued during the reigns of Kings Charles III, IV and Ferdinand VII of Spain, struck in the mints of Mexico, Peru, Chile, etc. It is still possible to secure date collection of the latter series as they are still rather inexpensive.

During the reign of Ferdinand VII, Mexico and other Latin American countries revolted against Spain and started their own coinage. Independent Mexico produced the most colorful and extensive of this series, and a good collection may still be formed at a very modest figure. In this series, over 15 different mints manufactured coins of a uniform design from 1823 to 1909 which were legal tender in USA even as late as the 19th Century.

In China they circulated freely and were extensively chopmarked by Chinese merchants. The story of their use in China is a book by itself and became involved in

Spanish-American Authority Versatile In Number Of Areas

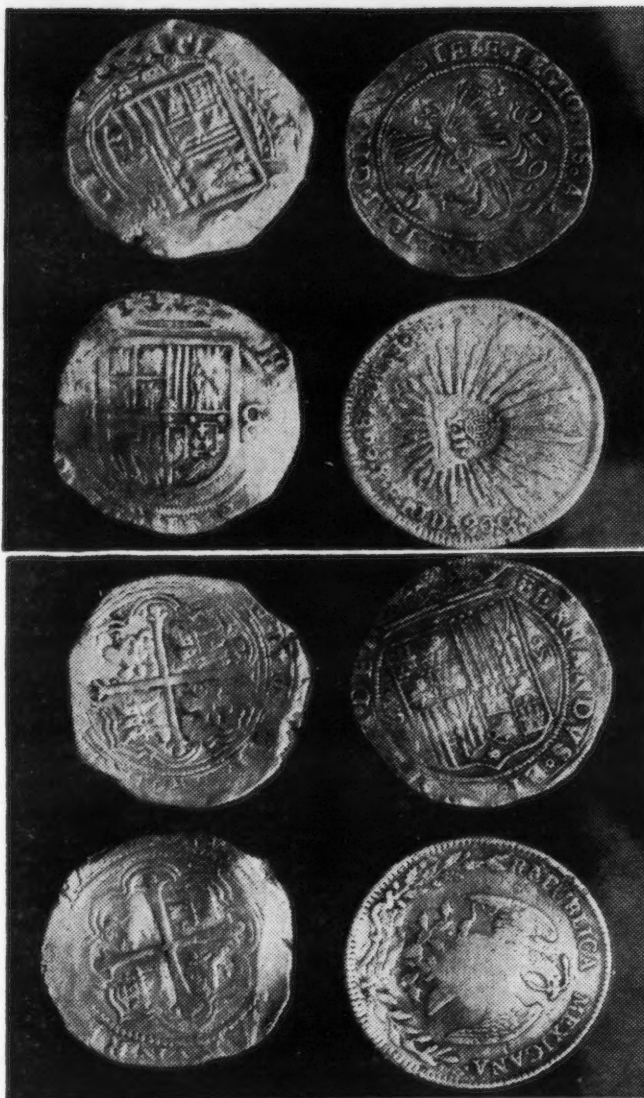

Dr. P. I. de Jesus who is counted as one of the foremost authority on Spanish-American coins, lives on the other side of the globe in far-away Manila; that nation's coins are closely linked with the histories of Mexico, Spain and the United States.

Dr. De Jesus is a product of the Philippine public schools organized by pioneer American educators who followed closely after Admiral Dewey defeated the Spanish fleet in Manila Bay.

Dr. De Jesus has had varied training and career. After obtaining his medical degree from the Philippine state university, he was sent to the U.S. as fellow of the Rockefeller Foundation, where in 1930, he obtained a doctor's degree in Public Health at the famed Massachusetts Institute of Technology.

Returning to the University of the Philippines, he taught public health and sanitary engineering. However, he served in many and varied health activities including water purification, malaria control, food and drug analysis, and industrial hygiene. Retiring from public health work, he is now engaged in various financing companies including insurance and banking.

The gene of coin collecting seems to run in the family. His a struggle with the U.S. trade dollar and the other trade dollars of England, France, Japan, etc. The collector familiar with this series look for the identity of each mint by their interesting symbols M surmounted by small O for Mexico City, A or As for Alamos, Ca for Chihuahua, but C or Ca for Culiacan, D or Do for Durango, Ga for Guadalajara, etc., etc., a distinct symbol for a different mint. Full information on Mexican coinage, we owe to the studies of the foremost Mexican savant, Dr. A. F. Pradeau. The recent catalogs of Henry Christensen have stimulated great interest in this series among American collectors.

father started him with a bag full of Spanish-American dollars and he struck to this line ever since. He has written a number of articles on numismatics which reflects a quality that are typical of those commonly produced by scientists.

Dr. De Jesus was president of the Philippine Numismatic and Antiquarian Society for several years and has been editor of the Philippine Numismatic Monographs since the first number.

Dr. De Jesus is a member of the American Numismatic Association, the Spanish Numismatic Association, and other numismatic societies of Mexico, Argentina, Spain, etc. As a scientist, he belongs to the National Research Council of the Philippines, the Philippine Association for the Advancement of Science, Philippine Medical Association, Philippine Public Health Association and other scientific societies. For the government, he served as a director of the National Waterworks and Sewerage Authority of the Philippines.

Dr. De Jesus hopes to establish a Money Museum in the Prudential Bank where he is the senior vice president and treasurer in charge of the cash department.

Cenla Coin Club of Alexandria, La., is staging a coin show for the benefit of patients at the Alexandria Veterans' Hospital on Monday, October 16 at 7 p.m., reports J. H. Bertrand, secretary. The Cenla club decided to hold the show after it was learned that many of the patients were interested in numismatics.

Gun-Coin Show Two Day Affair

The Burlington, Colo., Chamber of Commerce is sponsoring a Gun and Coin Show to be held on October 14 and 15 at the Burlington State Armory on 14th street, one block north of U. S. Highway 24, reports Mel Semmel, general chairman.

Semmel estimates that between 125 and 150 coin and gun dealers and collectors will occupy bourse tables for buying selling and trading. He expects a total attendance of over 500.

Further show information may be obtained from Semmel at P. O. Box 267, Burlington.

Jim Redwine is serving as chairman and has been especially concerned with organizing a number of interesting exhibits for the show.

Cenla club has already provided the hospital library with copies of Red Book, Coin World, and other numismatic literature.

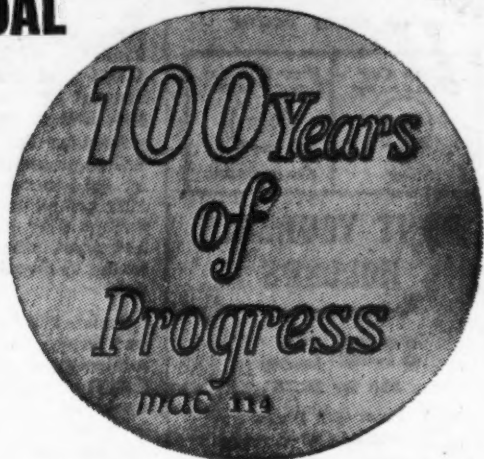

Plans are being made for a one-day coin show for the public to be held at the Alexandria Community Center on Sunday, November 19.

"This show is being put on for the purpose of stimulating the public's interest in coin collecting," commented Bertrand; "it is hoped by doing so the club will increase its membership and render a valuable service to the community."

Bourse tables are still available and those interested in obtaining reservations should write to S. M. Fartherree, general chairman, P. O. Box 4004, Alexandria, La.

Fort Wayne To Hold Show

Final plans are being made for the Old Fort Coin Club's fourth annual Open House and Coin Exhibition scheduled for November 4 and 5 at the National Guard Armory, 330 South Clinton street, Fort Wayne, Ind.

Trophies for exhibit winners will be presented in both the senior and junior divisions. Senior exhibit categories are: U. S. coins, foreign coins, paper money, gold and proof, ancient; and medals, tokens, odd and curious mint errors.

Junior divisions include, U. S. and foreign coins, and U.S. and foreign paper money.

Anyone wishing to reserve space for exhibits is requested to contact Myron Huffman, 1315 Spy Run avenue, Fort Wayne.

The first annual "Augustus Saint Gaudens Numismatic Showmanship Award" will be presented at this exhibition, announced Ward Lassen, publicity director.

"The award, a large trophy, is being presented to encourage interest in collecting, and exhibiting all types and kinds of numismatic specimens not necessarily in the intrinsic or sale value," said Lassen, "but rather in the artistic beauty and historical significance of individual pieces and entire collections."

Further show information may be obtained from James Fairfield, general chairman, 1825 West State street, Fort Wayne.

Medal Film Club Theme

Conformance with the current national interest in medals was evidenced in the September program of the Evansville Coin Club, Evansville, Ind., when members saw the movie, "The Medal Maker."

"Interest in medals is increasing and this movie is a most for all coin collectors," said Bettye J. Klaus, secretary of the club.

The movie featured the artistic designer, Laura Gardin Frazier, as to how the medal goes through the changes from design to production. A second movie, "Sing Hi-Sing Low," was shown. Bash Kennett sang while pleasantly explaining how bartering was done in the days before money.

Bill Pukall, Ed Skully and Charles Wicker displayed their favorite medals.

Centennial Medals Are Still Available

The Evansville, Ind., Coin Club still has available a large number of both silver and bronze medals commemorating the centennial of the Civil War and the third annual Indiana Numismatic Association Convention held in Evansville last May.

Silver medals are serially numbered and are priced at $7.50. The oxidized bronze medals are priced at $1. They may be ordered directly from the Evansville Coin Club, 1351 Washington avenue, Evansville 14.

for those who want the best, it's the
McMASTER Sterling

Designed especially for proof and uncirculated U.S. coins

The coin recess of each Sterling holder is precision-molded to accommodate new or worn coins so as to keep them perfectly airtight and free from turning in holder.

TRANSPARENT
Clearer than glass! Gives perfect views of obverse, reverse, and edge of coins.

SOLID PLASTIC
The protective properties of plastic keep coins displayed beautifully and indefinitely under almost any condition no matter how careless the handling of the holder.

It's so easy! Just sandwich the coin between the two halves of the Sterling holder. Press them together and behold! You have your price coin encased in a clear sheath of pure plastic with that "molded-in" look. Yet it can be easily removed if desired without injury to coin or holder.

The precise, friction fit makes the encasement of the coin almost permanent. Tapered pins fit into tapered holes. And each corner is securely locked when squeezed together with finger pressure. Holders may be opened by inserting a thin knife blade between halves of holder. Coins may be identified by writing on the self-adhering strips, which are provided in each box, and applying them to the edge or side of holder.

HERMETIC SEAL
Two halves of holder fit together perfectly with finger pressure. Coins will not tarnish due to atmospheric conditions.

PRECISION MADE
Exactly 2" square. Fits all standard cases and trays. Recess for coins made to specifications of the U. S. Mint.

Your coins appear as though embedded in solid plastic

Collectors' Show To Be October 28-29

The annual Tri-State Collectors Exhibition will be held on October 28 and 29 at the Concord, N. H., Masonic Hall, reports Wayne Rich, secretary.

This event, sponsored by the New Hampshire Collectors Club of Concord, is expected to draw collectors and dealers from a good part of Canada, New England, New York and surrounding states, commented Rich.

An auction, bourse, and exhibits will center around such items as coins, stamps, buttons, dolls, Civil War materials, antiques, paintings, model trains and china.

The governor's trophy, a sterling silver Paul Revere bowl, has been donated by Wesley Powell as the grand award in the exhibit competition.

Anyone is allowed to compete, announced Clifton Smith, judging chairman, although exhibits which have already received a previous award are not eligible.

Exhibits need not be valuable, added Smith, since rarity and completeness count only five per cent. Originality, showmanship and knowledge of subject are the primary factors for judging, Smith concluded.

Harold D. Pearson of Epsom, N. H., is the show's general chairman.

FOLKS...

I'm pooped. My wife had a daughter Monday morning (should I take credit) and this week is plumb out of joint.

A lot of people write me, asking for my price lists on things. This is okay, as long as you don't expect a special price list with special prices just for you. It really doesn't matter, anyway, because my ONLY price list is my ad. Start saving some of these buy-sell lists.

To show you what I mean about people writing for special prices, at least 2 people this last week wanted proofs or rolls at below my advertised buying prices. Now, I don't try to juggle the market with false advertising like some do. If I offer something too cheap, well-tough, I still deliver what I have.

I'm buying—somebody sell me something!

Best, SHOTGUN.

CHOICE EARLY PROOFS

Most of the proofs in this list are from a single lot of the finest proofs I have ever seen. Most of the silver exhibits deep blue to velvet patina; really magnificent. Please note the mintages (regular and proof issue combined) which are some of the lowest in the history of our coinage, and consider the investment advantages of such choice display material.

Detroit Has Double Duty

The Detroit, Mich., Coin Club, which will host not only the 1961 Michigan State Numismatic Association Convention next November 24-26, but also the 1962 combined American Numismatic Association-Canadian Numismatic Association Convention, probably has more experienced people in its membership than most clubs.

On the Detroit club roster are no less than 17 Life Members, a distinction given to members after their 25th year in the club. Organized in 1924, the club has grown to a membership of 296, with an average attendance of 60 at meetings, according to a report from secretary Daniel C. Parker.

Meeting on the first and third Thursdays of each month at the Detroit-Leland Hotel, the group adds a third session whenever the month has a fifth Thursday. This one is purely a social meeting with refreshments and no business conducted. There have been three such opportunities so far this year, with one left to go, in November.

Next session of the Detroit club is slated for Thursday, October 19, starting at 7 p.m.

Robberies . . .

Coins and a model airplane en-reported to police as stolen from the Art and Hobby Center, Lincoln, Neb. The intruder also caused about $60 damage breaking in, police said.

A collection of foreign coins was stolen from the Scher Brothers chemical firm, Passaic, N. J., police said. Value of the stolen coins is not as yet determined.
The intruder broke a plywood overhead door to gain entry. Offices in the building were ransacked, but nothing else was reported missing. There were more than 100 coins in the collection which was the property of one of the owners of the firm.

Thieves broke into the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Black of Asheville, N. C., and made off with many rolls of U.S. coins, both circulated and uncirculated.
The Blacks operate a coin shop in Asheville.

A collection of stop watches and radios was also taken. Total value of the stolen merchandise was $6,000, according to Mrs. Black.

A large number of U. S. coins were stolen from the home of Mrs. S. R. Cooke, Orville, Ohio.
Included in the loss were uncirculated specimens of the 1916-D and 1942/41 dimes. A roll of silver dollars of mixed dates, 17 rolls of recent uncirculated cents, and 19 rolls of recent uncirculated dimes also were stolen, in addition to a large number of circulated U. S. coins.
Orville police are investigating.

COIN MEDALS

We are now sending out the Saint-Gaudens silver and bronze medals, and will have accumulated orders cleaned up in a few days. Mr. Robert Schabel, the artist who made the Saint-Gaudens, has now started work on the Victor Brenner medal.

When you receive your Saint-Gaudens, we want you to make a study of the intricate detail, the beautiful artistry, of this outstanding medal. Then you will see why it took a month longer than we expected to complete the medal. Compare with other medals, and you will agree that in the Saint-Gaudens, coin collectors have a medal that is a medal! Numismatists now have a medal they can call their own.

The serially numbered silver Saint-Gaudens is still only $27.50, but will be $30.00 after Oct. 15th. Send only $10.00 down if you prefer, and you will receive acknowledgment of the order with serial number of your medal. Then pay the balance in two monthly payments and medal will be delivered. The same payment plan applies to the Brenner and future COIN MEDALS in silver. Also, you will be reserved the same serial number in the Brenner medal, all you do is keep up the monthly payments and you get the entire series of silver COIN MEDALS with the same numbers.

EXTREMELY RARE MEDAL FOR SALE

A solid gold life-saving medal, awarded by the United States in 1923 to a sea captain on the Maine coast, for heroism displayed in saving several persons from a wrecked ship during a storm. This large medal, with pendant, which also is solid gold, weighs so close to 5 ounces, that we will call it that. The obverse shows a design of a life-saving action on the sea, probably done by a mint engraver. DeLuxe medals like this rarely come up for sale, and if you are in the gold and platinum class, this is for you.

Price $500.00

But telephone Bangor, Maine, 2-9867 before sending check. I don't want to have several hundred $500 checks around, you might never hear from me again! With the medal, is the 1923 newspaper clipping story of the sea rescue, and also the official presentation letter from the government. All housed in original plush case.

Have several hundred other foreign gold coins in stock, from gold dollar to $20 sizes, but not enough of a kind to advertise. Send me list of foreign gold you have now, and a $20.00 deposit, and I will send different countries on approval.

APPROVAL SHIPMENTS

The best way to build up your collection, is with my approval shipments. I am getting in nice material every day, but never get to list them, because they go out to my customers who have their want-lists filed with me. For instance, while writing this, the expressman brought in a box containing several thousand dollars Red book in choice Proof and Unc. Shield, Liberty and Buffalo Nickels. These will be all sent to my approval customers within the next few days. I specialize in coins from $1.00 to $1000.00 each, so this pretty well covers the requirements of most collectors. Simply send me a list of the coins you need, and a $10.00 or $20.00 deposit if you collect ordinary G-F coins, and a $50.00 to $100.00 deposit if you collect Proof, Unc., or rare coins or gold coins. The deposit will be held to your account, and you pay $10.00 or more a month on the coins I send on approval. More coins will be sent as you make payments. You can apply the deposit when you make final settlement, or I will refund anytime you ask.

F.A. Luke Develops "Eze-Vue" Coin Album

F. A. Luke, owner of the Luke Coin Supply Co. of Fort Worth, Texas, has developed a new-type coin album page that he calls the "Eze-Vue" coin page.

The page is of all vinyl construction with 12 pockets and fits into both two and three-ring binders, or it can be folded and carried in the pocket.

All pockets open at the top and the coin holder is easily slid into place.

"Eze-Vue" pages sell at four for $2, while the individual coin holders are priced at 50 for $1.50. A special three-ring binder sells for $2.75, but the combination of three items is priced at $4.95.

Further information may be obtained by writing to the Luke Coin and Supply Co., 2724 Westbrook, Fort Worth 11, Tex.

Indians Issue Note

The Indians of the Cherokee Nation issued a $1 note in 1862; the only known existing specimen is in the Chase Bank collection in New York.

LOOKING FOR THAT CERTAIN COIN??

An excellent way to find it is to send me your want list, and let me price the ones you need in the grade you need them. Or you might like my approval service. If you can spend $10.00 or more a month on your collection, just send me a list of the coins you need, the grade, and the amount you'd like to spend a month. I'll send you a selection of which you keep the ones that please you, remit promptly, and in another month, you'll receive another selection.

Gold Lincoln Inauguration Medal Presented To President Kennedy

man Peter Mack, President Kennedy, Congressman Fred Schwengel, Ralph E. Becker, Congressman William Bray, Congressman Winfield K. Denton and Harry Megill.

The official commemorative medal of the Lincoln inaugural anniversary celebration was presented to President John F. Kennedy at a ceremony in the White House on September 6.

Congressman Fred Schwengel (Rep., Iowa) spoke at the presentation. He is chairman of the joint committee on arrangements for the one hundredth anniversary of the first inauguration of Abraham Lincoln, and vice chairman of the National Civil War Centennial Commission. He made the gift on behalf of the District of Columbia Civil War Centennial Commission and the Lincoln Group of the District of Columbia.

Those present for the ceremony were Senator Vance Hartke, Congressman Peter Mack, Congressman Winfield Denton, Congressman Fred Schwengel, Congressman William Bray, all members of the joint committee on arrangements; (members of the joint committee unable to attend were Senator Paul H. Douglas, Senator Everett M. Dirksen and Senator John S. Cooper); Paul Sedgwick, chairman of the District of Columbia Civil War Centennial Commission; Ralph E. Becker, chairman of arrangements, Lincoln inaugural centennial committee; Earl Chesney, co-chairman of the Lincoln inaugural centennial committee; Victor Birely representing the Lincoln group of the District of Columbia and Harry Megill, chief consultant for the joint committee on arrangements.

The commemorative ceremony was held on the 100th anniversary of the inauguration of Abraham Lincoln on the steps of the East Front of the U.S. Capitol. This commemoration was pursuant to house joint resolution 155 introduced by Congressman Schwengel and was the first bill to be passed by the House and Senate and signed by President Kennedy.

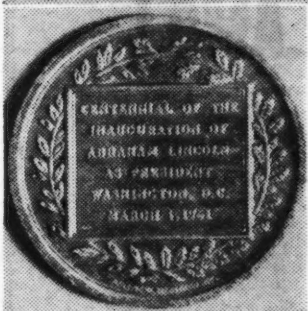

Three medals, enclosed in a leather bound case with a suitable inscription in gold on the lid, were received by the President in the ceremony at the White House on September 6; one was gold, which was struck for the president, the other were in silver and bronze.

The official inaugural medal medal was modeled after the original 1861 medal by F. B. Smith of Smith & Hartman, New York. The original, which is a rare medal, is in the Ralph E. Becker Collection of Political Americana at the Smithsonian Institution, Washington, D. C.

The obverse inscription reads "Lincoln & Hamlin", enclosing jugata busts of Lincoln and Hamlin encircled with crossed palm wreaths. (See attached picture.)

The reverse was modeled after the Benjamin Harrison-George Washington Centennial commemorative medal of 1889. Oak leaves encircle a square containing the inscription "Centennial of the Inauguration of Abraham Lincoln as President, Washington, D. C., March 4, 1961."

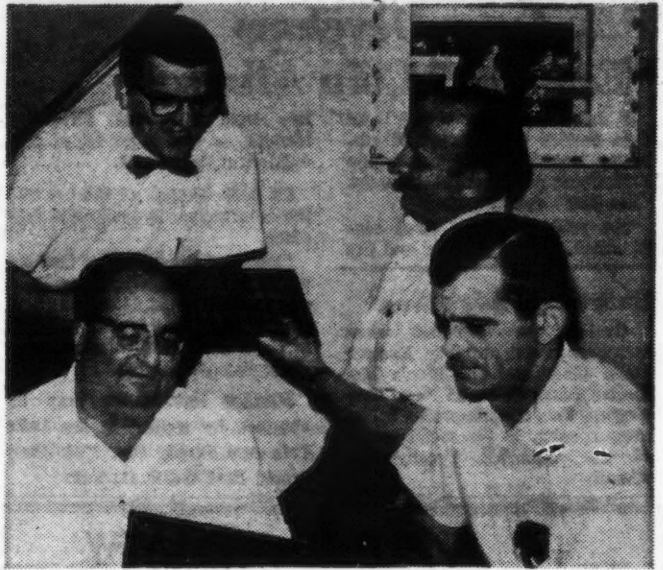

Gene Becker of Chicago was the engraver and die sinker of this commemorative medal. He spent 90 hours in die cutting and used additional blows from the metal press in order to obtain a high relief for better detail.

This medal was made and designed by Political Heritage, Inc., of Massapequa, N. Y. They may be obtained from Authentic Distributors, Box 216, Massapequa, N. Y., the official distributor, in bronze at $2.50 each and a limited supply in sterling silver at $7.50 each.

South Bend Club Plans Show

The South Bend Coin Club will hold its seventh annual Coin Show at the Eagles Lodge Hall, 321 North Michigan Street, South Bend, Indiana, Saturday, October 21, from 10 a.m. until 10 p.m., and Sunday, October 22, from 12 noon until 6 p.m. according to an announcement by John E. Deren, publicity chairman for the affair.

Approximately $250,000, in coin and paper money, as well as many odd, unusual, rare and curious numismatic items from all parts of the world will be on display. All exhibits will be judged in accordance with the American Numismatic Association standards, and ribbons will be awarded to the winners on Sunday at 1 p.m.

An auction of choice collectors' items will take place Sunday at 2 p.m. It is important to note that a coin auction generally is the highlight of any show and members anticipate placing many rare and unusual coins up for bids.

Walter White, Secretary of the coin club, reported that the open house coin exhibit held last year was a complete success, attended by well over 2500 visitors, and assures that no efforts will be spared to make this show an even better one. Edward Mackowski, Chairman of the Seventh Annual Coin Show, reports that plans are progressing better than anticipated.

Tom Compton, Jr. and Ted Bierwagen are in charge of arrangements for the many and varied exhibits to be displayed by both junior and senior members, and invite interested collectors who wish to exhibit their coin collections to contact Bierwagen for further details.

"Coin collecting is one of America's fastest growing hobbies," said Henry Lezak, president of the club. "Contrary to popular belief, one does not have to possess wealth to enjoy this fascinating hobby. In fact, the nucleus of any collection may be formed with the change found in one's pocket."

The South Bend Coin Club was founded in December 1954, with 34 charter members. The membership grew rapidly and at present boasts of 181 yearly paid members from the Michigan area. Approximately 30 per cent of the members are juniors—under 21 years of age.

The club meets on the first Friday of each month at 7:30 p.m., and the next to the last Sunday at 2 p.m., at the Y.M.C.A. Visitors are always welcome to attend meetings and are also welcome to attend the October Show.

Courteous hostesses will be in attendance to welcome and help visitors in any way. Admission is free.

Gold Piece Shatters Record

An 1875 three dollar gold piece in proof brought a record $16,500 at Stack's of New York September 23 "Delta Sale" auction. Listed in the 1962 Redbook at "only" $6,250, the coin brought an opening mail bid of $12,500 and was finally sold to a Norfolk collector for the record $16,500.

Only 20 specimens of the 1875 in proof are known to exist.

So great was the interest in the lot of three dollar gold, Stack's commented, that one western dealer used a long-distance phone call in an attempt to acquire some of the items, and kept the line open during the auction and bid by phone.

The 1876 three dollar, also in proof, brought a record $4,500; Redbook lists this coin at $3,000. Other coins in this series brought record or near-record prices.

A number of early $10 Eagles were included in the sale; a 1797 large heraldic eagle in EF sold for $500, and an 1800 in AU brought $450.

Foreign gold was also actively bid on, said Stack's, and many of them sold at record prices on the floor.

English gold coins proved to be especially popular. The Oxford three pounds of 1643 in VF sold for $660, and the William and Mary five guineas of 1693 at $280.

Donald D'Amato served as auctioneer and was described as having "one of the most active floor buyers' groups in his many years in the business."

The 1875 $3 gold piece which brought $16,500 in the Stack's Delta sale.

"This sale further emphasizes the fact that there is continuous interest in coin collecting," Stack's observed, "and that real activity in the U.S. gold series is just beginning. The activity and interest in the gold series was astounding."

"The amount of bid sheets received by us," continued the New York dealers, "was one of the largest we ever received for a sale consisting of almost all gold. We feel that the market for gold coins will continue to advance just as the market for silver and copper coins is advancing. The main difference is that in gold coin, a complete set is quite difficult to acquire in uncirculated or proof condition.

"Collectors today are bidding actively for coins in both the very fine and extremely fine categories and are endeavoring to fill out complete sets," concluded Stack's.

MANA Meet Dates Nearing

Final plans are being made for the Middle Atlantic Numismatic Association's ninth annual Convention to be held on October 20, 21 and 22 at the Hotel Chamberlain, Fort Monroe, Va.

Virginia Peninsula Coin Club of Fort Monroe is the host club.

Over 1,600 lots will be included in the auction with one of the features to be an 1856 Flying eagle cent in brilliant proof with sharp wire edge. French's of Troy, N. Y., the auctioneers have placed a value of $1,400 on this coin.

Copies of the auction catalog may be obtained by writing to French's at 7 First Street, Troy, N. Y.

Series Of Displays Attract Viewers All Over Country

Along with the increasing interest in coin collecting, numismatic displays are also continuing to gain in popularity.

Banks, in particular, have sponsored countless displays, but coins have been exhibited at fairs and public libraries as well.

A wide variety of unusual treasures from the numismatic collection of Francis Cardinal Spellman was put on public display recently at the Ninth Federal Savings Bank, Broadway near 42nd street, New York City.

Included in the display are numerous gold, silver and bronze coins and medals, each struck for some outstanding historical occasion, such as the first Judean Revolt, Napoleon's capitalization at Ulm, and numerous American events.

A money display featuring all denominations of U. S. bills, up to and including the $10,000 bill, highlighted the recent grand opening of the new Toy National Bank building, Sioux City, Iowa.

The exhibit also included an array of gold coins and counterfeit money.

A coin exhibit featuring U. S. coins and currency is on display at the American Savings and Loan Co., Whittier, Calif.

The exhibit includes a Confederate half-dollar struck from the original die, the first $1 bill printed by the U. S. in 1862, and a unique $5 bill.

A custom-designed exhibit of coinage history, has been made available by the First National Bank of Cincinnati for its correspondent banks throughout the mid-west.

The newly prepared exhibit includes a representative display of U.S. coins used in the past 170 years of regular coinage, plus paper currency. It will be loaned to interested banks upon request to First National.

Julian S. Marks, well-known Cincinnati numismatist, worked with Barron Plastics Inc., Woodlawn, Ohio, on behalf of the bank to create a unique plexiglass display case.

Two Clubs Merge, Hold Field Day

Over 200 persons attended the recent first annual Coin Field Day sponsored jointly by the Camden, S. C., Coin Club and Blue Ridge Numismatic Association, reports Loran Ross, general chairman. The show was held in Camden's Home Demonstration building.

Earl T. Myers, of Tampa, Fla. and Highlands, S. C., presided over the two session auction that included very few "no sales."

When Myers was auctioning off a proof set, Ross commented someone sneezed and this was accepted as a bid; but the young man who sneezed was still happy with the set he accidentally purchased.

K. H. Patrick, one of the oldest American Numismatic Association members, A.N.A. 5354, at the field day, proudly displayed the 25-year pin he received at the A.N.A. Atlanta convention.

Assisting Ross in arranging the field day were Robert R. Pruett, John C. Edwards, and Ward Jacobs. J. L. Jones and Grady Sizemore of the Blue Ridge Numismatic Association assisted in the arrangements.

Nickel Recent

The five-cent piece, or nickel, first appeared in 1866; half dimes were issued from 1794 to 1873.

Rhodes Head Of New Club

Signed up at the opening session were 25 members. Among the visitors were members of the Lenoir and North Wilkesboro Coin clubs. Information regarding future meetings, may be obtained from any of the officers.

New England Numismatic Association Show To Be Held On October 14-15

Featuring exhibits, auction, bourse and a new duo-theme medal, the 17th annual convention of the New England Numismatic Association, set for this week end, October 14 and 15, in the Sheraton-Kimball Hotel, Springfield, Mass., promises to be bigger and better than ever, according to executive secretary Howard E. Davis, East Hartford, Conn.

Three exhibit categories deserving special mention include a new one, "Most nicely displayed exhibit", for which both junior and senior divisions are equally eligible. It was felt by the exhibit committee that the manner and work that goes into making a nicely displayed exhibit should be rewarded, regardless of whether or not the best such display wins any other awards.

The other two include a "Junior" category for any exhibits by collectors up to and including 15 years of age, and a special class for exhibits commemorating the Civil War, appropriate for this first centennial year. In the 11 classes all told, provision is made for almost any type of collecting specialty. The list follows:

United States coins; Colonial coins of the United States; Currency of the United States, 1862 to date including fractional and postage currency; Colonial and Broken Bank notes; Canada and Provincial; ancient and foreign coins; odd and curious; medals and tokens; and the three mentioned above.

Members of the Exhibit committee included Fritz E. Tidlund, chairman, and John P. Skribiski and Joseph S. Demaradski, all of Amherst, Mass.

Silver bowls will be given for the three best exhibits, regardless of category, and three ribbons will be awarded in each class.

Other plans for the Convention include an informal social period on Friday evening, October 13, before the opening of the show proper. This will take place in Suite 214-216 in the Hotel.

New England medal . . .

The auction is scheduled for two sessions, afternoon and evening. Material for it was provided or accepted on consignment by five leading New England dealers; Copley Coin, Charter Oak Coin, Spruceland Stamp and Coin, Bay State Coin and New England Stamp and Coin.

The dealers' bourse is slated for Saturday, October 14, in the Main Ballroom, and dealers from Georgia to Canada have made reservations. George Mallis of Springfield, Mass., is bourse chairman. For convenience, a buffet dinner will be served on Saturday evening in the bourse room.

On Sunday, the main banquet and business meeting of the Association is scheduled for the Embassy Room of the Hotel, as the Convention climax.

Additional features include arranging for "ladies' activities" by the Springfield Chamber of Commerce, and the fact that the Association Convention medal will not only be given with registration but may be obtained by writing Henry Evanson, 115 State Street, Room 210, Springfield, Mass.

Hazleton Show Plans Auction

The first annual Coin Show of the Anthracite Coin Club, Hazleton, Pa., will be held Sunday, October 22, from 1 p.m. until 10 p.m. at the Eagle's Club House on North Wyoming Street, Hazleton, it was announced by Mrs. Harry Berge, secretary.

Harry Berge has been named to serve as general chairman of the show which will feature various displays of U.S. and foreign coins and currency.

Admission will be free, and a bourse-auction will be held from 8 p.m. to 10 p.m., Mrs. Berge said.

New Officers For Coast Club

Roy Johnston, president of the Pajaro Valley Coin Club of Freedom, Calif., introduced the group's new officers at a recent meeting. They are:

Jerry Perchesky, vice president; George Dusio, treasurer; Al Thomas, secretary.

Pajaro Valley club meets on the third Monday of each month in the Social Hall of the Methodist Church, Freedom, at 8 p.m. A special dinner meeting has been arranged for October 10.

Nelson New Grand Island Top Executive

The Grand Island, Nebr., Coin Club conducted an election of officers at its September meeting and elected Clifford Nelson president, according to an announcement by Dan Scott, secretary.

Other new officers include John Shada, vice president; C. E. Ivers, treasurer; Dan Scott, secretary; David White, junior chairman, and directors Paul Horn and Earl Roseberry. Elmer G. Nelson is the retiring president.

On Sunday, September 25, the Grand Island Coin Club was host at a coin show which featured coin exhibits and other numismatic material. Awards were presented to top exhibitors in several fields.

Another feature of the show was the bourse, consisting of ten tables, where dealers and collectors from Grand Island and surrounding area displayed their stock of rare coins, currency and coin supplies.

The Grand Island Club, although only one year old, is one of the most active. Meeting attendance is among the best of clubs in Nebraska.

On April 7 and 8, 1962, the club will be host to the Nebraska Numismatic Association's seventh annual convention at the Yancey Hotel.

It is expected that the convention will attract people from throughout the middlewest as well as from other parts of the U.S.

Austin Club To Hear Communion Token Talk

Oliver Keith Rumbel of Mission, Texas, internationally known collector of communion tokens, was guest speaker at the September meeting of the Hidalgo, Texas, Coin Club.

Rumbel's collection of communion tokens consists of more than 20,000 specimens, 10,000 of which are distinct varieties and it is considered the largest collection of its kind in the world.

Presently in New York where he is tracing down another group of tokens, Rumbel will next appear at the October 11 meeting of the Austin, Texas, Coin Club where he will also present a program on communion tokens.

Many of these tokens have been placed in the Library of the Austin Presbyterian Theological Seminary at Austin. They are beautifully housed and the history of each enables one to have a better aspect of church history.

He began his collection of tokens early in 1930 and they have come from all parts of the world, representing the United States, Canada, Scotland, England and Ireland as well as those from churches in other lands.

Communion tokens were given to those who were permitted to participate in the Lord's Supper, and evidence shows that they were used in Scotland as early as 1560.

Anchorage Club Auction Slated

Plans for its semi-annual public auction, scheduled for November 4, are slated for discussion at the next meeting, Wednesday, October 18, of the Alaska Coin Club of Anchorage, to be held in the Loussac Library in Anchorage, starting at 8 p.m.

The club holds two public auctions each year, the first in April.

Organized in February, 1958, the club has grown to a membership of 57. Because many of its members are in military service and liable to transfer, attendance fluctuates and there is considerable turnover in membership, according to secretary Carrol H. Larsen.

Collectors Show At Mendota County Fair

The Illinois Valley Coin Meet, held recently at the Mendota, Ill., Tri-County Fair, proved to be successful since several thousand persons visited the numerous coin exhibits and bourse tables, according to a recent report.

A coin auction was also held at the fair. Lester G. Beatty of La Moille, Ill., had one of the prize exhibits of U.S. coins.

Pennsylvanian Releases
Mercury S Dime Research

By James G. Johnson

Some pretty interesting mail has come in recently, and more has been piling up for some months. But this week's column I would like to devote mostly to the results of some research done by A. M. Trogner of East Stroudsburg, Pa., in large part to show what can be done if a collector is interested in serious study. The significance of the subject matter of the study is not important, but the fact that it was done at all, I feel is important. To the best of my knowledge and belief, Trogner's study is the first of its kind.

First, I want to get a couple of short ones out of the way, which deserve discussion. Let me quote from a letter written by E. C. Johnson (no relation, but hardly a "rare" name) of Lakewood, Ohio.

"Dealers and collectors advertise 'BU' coins and when I get them, most of the time they are dark or spotted or both, frequently tarnished. 'BU' means brilliant uncirculated, not just uncirculated. 'Brilliant' means shiny, untarnished, uncolored. If coins are not just that, they should be advertised and sold as plain uncirculated (with or without a qualifying adjective such as dull, etc.)."

Mr. Johnson's A.N.A. number is low enough to indicate he is probably a collector of quite a few years' experience, and should know what he is talking about. Evidently he is not a reader of this column, because I said the same thing a few weeks ago.

Obviously, I agree with him 100 per cent. It strikes home particularly because today I received in the mail an Indian cent I had ordered from a dealer who advertised it as "BU". I had ordered four different dates, but he refunded part of my money and said he had only one date left. (Yes, I get refunds, too, which shows I order on the same basis as anybody else, and have no advantage as a Coin World staff member).

Anyhow, the coin was uncirculated so far as I could tell from routine examination, but it was NOT BU, merely "red", and dull red at that. I wrote the dealer that I was keeping the coin because it was worth the price (it was a "bargain"), but that I could not agree with his grading of it as "BU", and at a BU price it would not have been satisfactory. I have some brilliant Indian heads in my collection, and they are a lot prettier than that one.

So, I suggest to Mr. E. C. Johnson that when he does not like the grade of a coin, he tell the dealer about it, nicely, whether or not he keeps the coin. The same goes for other collectors. Keep pushing the dealers to grade correctly, and maybe it will have some effect in the long run. Most time it is better to return the coin, as I usually do, but be polite about it. Being irate in writing gets nobody any place.

The other short one is from Joseph D. Burbidge of Salt Lake City, who has heard of a drapery difference in the 1926-S Standing Liberty quarter, and would like a description of the two kinds.

I, too, have heard something

C.W. Copies Passed On To Others

Lillian Beemer of Detroit, Michigan, has a unique way of disposing of her COIN WORLD copies after she is through reading them.

The following is taken from a letter received from her recently:

I would like you and your readers to know what I have done with many of my Coin Worlds. A few I gave to interested coin collectors, however the majority, I bundled them, received permission from the assistant manager of a large Kresge store and the two gentlemen who were conducting a coin sale and buying session at the store to give them away free to any interested customer. They placed the stack of Coin World newspapers on a table and allowed people to take one each. I feel sure you will hear from many after they have read your fine, informative newspaper.

The assistant manager and the two gentlemen were deeply grateful for my thoughtfulness as they termed it. To me, the information therein contained in each Coin World is too valuable to destroy so I passed it on to others.

Medals Struck For Villa

Two commemorative medals have recently been struck in memory of Francisco Villa according to the Numismatic Society of Mexico in its Bulletin.

The first to appear was designed and modeled by Sr. Lorenzo Rafael and produced in the workshop of Sr. Cristobal Mendoza.

Gold and silver medals were struck, both with a module of 40 mm. The gold was of .900 fineness with a weight of 42 gms., and the silver of .980 fineness and a weight of 27 gms.

The obverse features the eagle of the country's coat of arms of the revolutionary period with the inscription "Division de Norte—1960", and the reverse the bust of General Francisco Villa.

The second, designed by Sr. Ernesto Tamariz, and struck by Mewco, S. A., was conceived by Sr. Carlos D. Neve. Production was supervised by general Adolfo Leon Osorio. Gold, silver and copper examples were struck, all with a 37 mm. module.

The gold was struck with a fineness of .890 and a weight of 43 gms.; the silver of a fineness of .925 and weight of 31 gms.

The obverse features general Villa with the legend "El Centauro del Norte", "1913-1960" and the reverse a design of a charge of the "Dorados" (Villa's cavalry) with the legend "Ciudad Juarez-Tierra Blanca-Torreón-Zacatecas" and "Viva Villa" in the exergue.

French Great To Decorate

One Frenchman in every eight holds a decoration of some kind.

The French Institute of Statistics recently made a study of how many medals there are and how many people hold them.

Results suggest that France is probably the world's most decorated country. It has over 100 medals, most of them military or Resistance awards.

There is also a large variety of civilian decorations—for Maritime, Agricultural, or Social Merit, for public health, for sport, music, and so on. For the more humble there is a medal of honor for work.

All these decorations have narrow ribbons or rosettes which can be worn unobtrusively in the buttonhole of a civilian jacket.

Medals Ancient

Medals already existed in ancient times in the form of gold medallions which were used as gifts by Roman emperors.

Gatling Gun Centennial COMMEMORATIVE MEDAL

Magnificently sculptured in high relief with an unbelievable wealth of detail, the Gatling Medal has been acclaimed as one of the finest examples of medallic art. It is 60mm (2-3/8") in diameter, 3/8" thick at points of highest relief, weighs 1/4 pound. The standard medal in richly finished bronze, complete with attractive plastic case, is priced at $5.00.

SILVER MEDALS NOW IN STOCK!

A special issue in silver .999 fine, limited to only 2,500 serially-numbered pieces, has been struck. Issue date, September 15, 1961. Price, with case is $30.00.

Clubs Merge For Carnival

Delta Coin Club of Stockton, Calif., and the Sacramento Coin Club are co-hosts for the fifth annual Tri-City Coin Carnival to be held in Stockton on Sunday, October 22 at the Scottish Rite Temple, 33 W. Alpine avenue.

A bourse, exhibits and two aucson with the 1917, but again I don't know what it is. I have seen pictures of the two but condition of the coins was so bad I could tell nothing. Perhaps closer study would do it. So much for that. Now for excerpts from Mr. Troegner's letter.

"The Mercury 'S' dime is my main interest. I found my first 'micro-S' before I read or heard about this variety. Now I have four different 1945 micro-S dimes differing from each other by the location of the 'S' with respect to the leaves and stem of the branch.

"This indicates to me that there were at least four working dies used in 1945 which had the small letter die punch.

"Looking over between $15 and $50 worth of dimes each week. I have identified and collected Mercury dimes whose 'S' sizes and positions have determined the following numbers of different working dies. Actually these are just as much different coins as the 1960 large and small date cents.

"1941-25; 1942-23; 1943-33; 1944-18; 1945-31; and the end is not yet! Remember, these are all 'S' mints.

tion sessions are scheduled for this show which will commence at 10 a.m. and close at 7 p.m.

Bourse reservations should be sent to Gordon D. Rammer, 2039 Polk Way, Stockton 7. October 15 is the deadline.

"How many more working dies were used in each of those years at San Francisco, I do not know, but I intend to find out if I can. "In my studies I have found indications that not just two but three sizes of 'S' punch were used. As to the shape of the letter, and whether there were serifs on the larger sizes as well as the 'micro', I think the shape of all three was the same when the punches were new.

"The variations in endings which you discussed in your column of June 30 I believe are deformations of the punches caused by continued use past the time when they should have been discarded.

"This would apply also to the break in the middle of the top stroke which you discussed. I find it repeated in a number of coins which from the position of the 'S' were struck from different working dies which would not be apt to occur if due to a 'filled' die or similar cause.

"To summarize, I would say that the personnel at the San Francisco Mint who used the Mint mark punches on the plain dies as received from Philadelphia were not careful as to where they did the stamping nor what size punches they used nor as to the condition of the punches.

"The micro-S size was used on the cent and also the Walking Liberty half dollar, to mention only two examples.

"However, I am not sorry about that since the resulting variations from die to die afford a collector the chance to make a separate study and collection of the resulting different and separate coins. I would appreciate your reaction to my theories."

Mr. Troegner, I bow before a numismatist. I think you have embarked on an interesting study, and a worthwhile one. May I suggest that you keep one eye peeled for variations in Master dies as well as in working dies. That would be a line in which even more collectors would be interested, but I think what you are doing now will give a lot of them ideas about what can be done when they can't find or buy a 1909-S VDB.

It is possible that we might end up knowing more about what is done at the Mint than the Mint people themselves know. Your study might be criticised by some on the grounds that what you are finding is of slight importance. I think knowledge itself is important. If there had been Mint marks in the days of the large cent, I am confident that neither Newcomb nor Dr. Sheldon would have neglected them.

The Romance of MONEY

By Ted Hammer

Ted R. Hammer military post had one such individual, serving under appointment by the secretary of war. Such camp followers were not new in this country and one is mentioned as early as 1588 in Shakespeare's "Henry V."

The Civil War sutler at first issued tokens in denominations of five cents to a dollar on paper or cardboard. These soon disintegrated and were replaced by metallic tokens, most of them in brass. A token might bear this wording on one side "Ferguson: 25 cents in goods. 10th Reg. O.V. 2 B 12." The reverse side usually was blank, or had merely the die cutter's design.

We may ask today, why issue tokens? Why not just operate on a cash basis?

Pay of the Civil War soldier ranged from $7 monthly for the private to $200 for a major general. There was a severe shortage of small coins that might serve as change. A soldier might establish credit with the regimental sutler, who on pay day would get his money from the pay master who in turn deducted it from the pay.

A soldier might be paid in gold or currency with as few pieces of money as possible being used—a private might receive a $5 gold piece and two silver dollars; a sergeant, paid $13 monthly, might receive a $10 gold piece, a $2.50 gold piece and a silver half dollar.

The sutler was busy on pay day, then, not only collecting for past sales but selling tokens. A fighting man might invest $1 to most or all of his pay in the tokens to make sure he could buy luxuries between then and the next pay day. The tokens were used as coins among the men, since they were good for merchandise immediately.

The sutlers even operated in prison camps where part of their job was changing treasury notes for Confederate notes—or the other way around, as the case might be. Many sutlers of the era earned fortunes, although they were not permitted to profiteer. For each one, a group of officers inspected his invoices when merchandise came in and set maximum prices he might charge.

The sutler filled a great need at a time when mail from home often was lost or damaged; food might be spoiled when it arrived and jars would be broken. He might provide a thousand luxuries not available elsewhere to the soldier. He was given free transportation and a place to operate his business, and his tokens today provide one of the most interesting sidelights in numismatics.

C.N.A. Report For Vancouver

Larry Gingras and Irene Schmidt spoke on the recent Canadian Numismatic Association convention at the first fall meeting of the Vancouver, B. C., Coin Club.

Since the Vancouver club doesn't meet during the summer months, all members were invited to speak on their summer's numismatic activities. Scott Simpson, for example, told about his trip to Anchorage and his search for Alaska tokens.

Another feature of the evening was the introduction of bourse tables so that members could dispose of their duplicate coins before the meeting and during the intermission.

Tokens Found In Quincy House

Civil War Tokens and stamps, plus other assorted items, were found when a century-old house was razed recently in Quincy, Ill., to make room for an addition to a motel.

A box stuffed into the attic of the crumbling two-story brick house contained a number of large cents, Indian heads, a variety of tokens and foreign coins.

James L. Slocum, Quincy Coin Club president appraised the find;

he declared some of the items were interesting but had no outstanding value.

Slocum said one of the most unusual pieces was a brass store card coin, made sometime between 1860 and 1865, bearing the inscription, "Magnetic Powder and Pills for Insects and Rats."

Another item, singled out by Slocum for its interesting background, was an 1863 Civil War token with the inscription on the obverse: "The Flag of Our Union." Reserve inscription read: "If anyone attempts to tear it down, shoot him on the spot."

Last occupants of the house, Mr. and Mrs. George Albertson of Quincy, moved several months ago after they had lived there five years. Mrs. Albertson said she had never seen the items and was not sure to whom they belonged.

Friends, Side Trips Keep Columnist Busy In Europe

By Hans M. F. Schulman

Hans Schulman is continuing his tour of Europe and writes more of the side-lights in connection with the meetings of the International Association of Professional Numismatists and the International Numismatic Congress in Rome.

Hans Schulman

—Editor. I spent several days in Basel where the Cahns are situated in their beautiful offices at the 25 Malzgasse and transact important coin business, as their family always had done—first in Frankfurt, then in Basel.

A visit to Hermann Rosenberg of the Adolph Hess firm in Lucerne was delayed because of lack of time, but American tourists should know that Lucerne is one of the most beautiful towns of Switzerland and it would be a good excuse to see Lucerne and visit our good friend Hermann, one of Europe's top numismatists.

I spent a night at the romantic Lago Maggiore in the Italian speaking part of Switzerland in Lugano. Lugano's beauty is different from that of Lucerne—it is a bit subtropical. Don't miss it if you have the time. It is only one hour by train from Italy's most bustling city, Milan.

Mario Ratto's shop in the Via Manzini 23 was like a "club" during the pre-convention days. Everybody was going to Rome by way of Milan and Mario received them all, quickly, dignified, and with a smile—32 came on that very day, including Edward Gans from Berkeley, Professor Grierson from England, H. H. Kricheldorf from Stuttgart, and many whom I didn't know.

Mario and I drove from Milan to Rome early in the morning, through the beautiful Italian countryside—first on the express highway, and then the old road south of Florence.

Mario is not only a great numismatist, but also a marvelous driver who knows how to speed his new Jaguar along Italy's beautiful roads.

When our stomachs told us it was time to taste the spaghetti, the ravioli, or the fettuccini, we decided to stop along the road in a little inn. And then miles away from everywhere was our new I.A.P.N. president with his wife, and brother—the entire numismatic family—Xavier Calico of Barcelona, Spain.

We didn't know then that Xavier would be the I.A.P.N.'s third president. He had steadfastly refused to accept the nomination, but when the executive committee in its pre-convention meeting drafted him almost unanimously, he couldn't refuse.

Many Americans were present and apart from Mr. and Mrs. Gans and myself, there were Sol Kaplan with Vivian and adorable little Lee.

There was Catherine "Bulowa" Moore with her husband Earl, Abner Kreisberg with Gladys, Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Storck, and our coin friends from Portland, Mr. and Mrs. Hall. Also there were Ben Stack with Doris and Mr. and Mrs. F. Saab—this was a good show for the U.S.A.!

During the conventions, we had the opportunity to visit the excavations in Palestrina, where hoards of coins have been found over the years. At around 7 p.m. our bus pulled back into Rome, just in time for everybody to change clothes and to climb up the stairs of Hadrian's tomb, and in the top arcade, the Italian numismatists had arranged for a catered dinner in the cool evening open air with a view over Rome never to be forgotten.

A new book about a part of Bavarian numismatics will soon be ready by him. Munich is also the home of Aureus Magnus whose director Werner Graul has just made two new medals, one showing Adenauer with the title of "Pater Patriae," which created a storm of protest in the Social Democratic press and the other mother Germany with her daughters which prompted Werner to write a long political article about Germany's place in the world. This article is available in the magazine; Aureus and Werner will gladly send a copy to anyone interested, 11 Vingerstrasse.

Coin World certainly will not agree with everything expressed but it makes for interesting reading for those who know German and Germany. And so another numismatic week has passed and this article is being written on the banks of the Rhine in Basel, Switzerland.

The World Numismatic Congress opened with almost 500 registration!

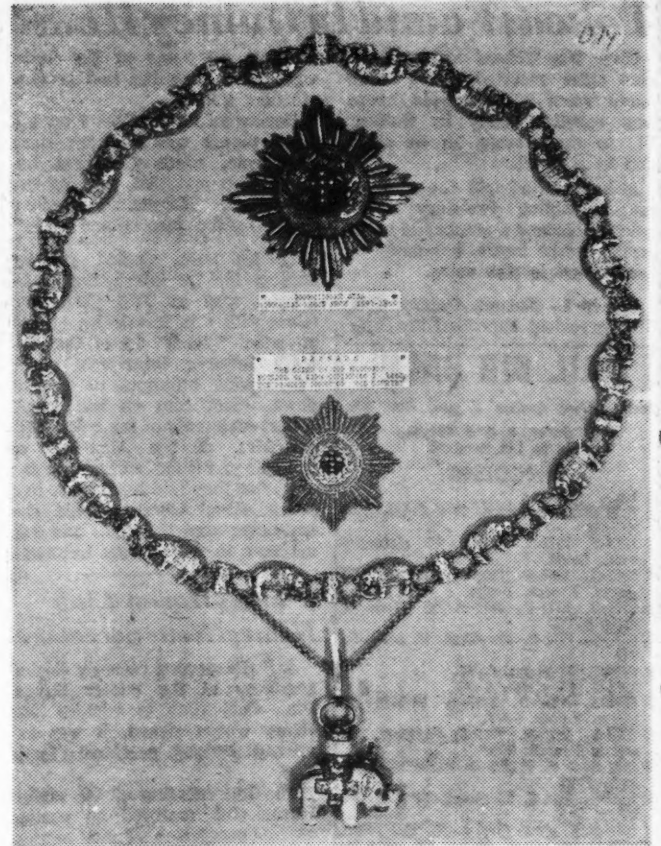

With great dignity, President C. H.V. Sutherland opened the third International Numismatic Congress in the City Hall (Campidoglio) of the Eternal City, Rome.

From all parts of the globe numismatists concentrated on Rome and the big receiving hall was almost too small to keep all the delegates within its walls.

After a welcoming speech from the President of the Italian Numismatic Society, who spoke slowly in Italian so that everybody might have a chance to understand him, President Sutherland then spoke in English, French and Italian saying particularly that archeology and numismatics go hand in hand and that in this beautiful city of Rome, one day the numismatist helps the archeologist and the next day it is the opposite.

President Sutherland also said that the excavations around the Mediterranean, which yielded many hoards of coins, prompted the establishment of the Congress in the first place.

A visit to the two big coin collections in the City of Rome was scheduled for noon and for 6 p.m.

These decorations from Denmark include, top, the embroidered star, official issue from 1693 to 1908, and bottom, the order of the elephant, founded by King Christian I, 1462, the highest order of the country.

For the first visit only a few steps separated the numismatists from the exhibit in the City Hall.

Unfortunately, the Vatican collection of coins was not open for visits except by special appointment. The evening gathered all of us in the beautiful rooms of the old Palazzo Barberini for cocktails in the cool gardens.

Now, a long series of seminars started, all about Mediterranean numismatics, both ancient and modern, and given in many languages by the greatest of the great in numismatics. Then at the end of the week all this will end with an excursion to the excavations and more museum visits.

There were many more participants in this Congress than in the two former congresses—the first in England in 1936 and the second in Paris in 1953.

The International Numismatic Congress is attached to UNESCO, the cultural branch of the United Nations.
